

Pins Highlight Action In IM Mat Opener

Seven matches ended in falls last night as the 1960 IM Wrestling Tournament got underway at Rec Hall.

Neal Newhouse of Alpha Chi Rho turned in the fastest pin of the night (0:26) against Darryl Bierly of Beta Theta Pi in a 135-pound bout.

Bob Kocur of Phi Kappa Theta followed Newhouse's example and pinned Acacia's 128-pound Carter Becker in 1:04.

Bill Phillips of Alpha Sigma Phi, a classy 158-pounder turned in one of the smoothest performances of the night, beating George Gay of Delta Phi, 3-0.

Don Link of Sigma Nu turned in the highest score of the night, beating Gary Reynolds of Kappa Sigma in another 128-pound bout, 11-0.

Globetrotters Hope to Sign Big 'O', Wilt

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Harlem Globetrotters are going to try to sign Oscar Robertson, Cincinnati All-America, and would like to have Wilt Chamberlain back.

Morry Saperstein, brother of Abe, the Trotters' owner, said yesterday Robertson was their number one project.

"We think Oscar would fit into the Globetrotters setup perfectly," Morry said. "Besides being a terrific ball player he is a pretty good showman."

Saperstein said of Chamberlain: "It's all up to Wilt. If he decides he has had enough of the rough treatment he has been getting all season we'll go after him. If he wants to stay with the Warriors, we'll keep our hands off."

"Playing with us would be a lot easier on Wilt than playing in the NBA."

Wilt Rejuvenates Warriors

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Wilt Chamberlain is back in business and could wrap up Eastern laurels here tonight. But coach Red Auerbach's classy club is hurting. Bob Cousy, star playmaker, has a damaged wrist and hasn't been able to play up to his usual brilliance. Big Bill Russell is favoring a tender ankle.

Should Philadelphia win today, the seventh and deciding game in the series is slated for Boston Saturday.

Coach Neil Johnston's team needed three straight victories over the defending champion Celtics to salvage the division crown. Two of the three games were in Boston. Chamberlain was badly handicapped with a hand injury, and the rest of the team was tired and in a slump.

Tuesday night, however, the Warriors came to life. Chamberlain's hand benefited by a day of rest and treatment, healed to the extent he hooped 50 points and grabbed 35 rebounds. Playmaker Guy Rodgers, after two poor games, scored 18 points and handed out 9 assists as the Warriors won 128-107.

Now, the picture is changed

Lakers Pointing For Final Berth

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The irrefragable Minneapolis Lakers swing for a knockout against the St. Louis Hawks tonight, and they may dump Hawk Coach Ed Macauley out of his job with the same blow.

The Hawks, trailing 3-2 in the best-of-seven National Basketball Assn. Western playoffs, came winging north yesterday amid a new storm of rumors that Macauley is on the way out.

In Chicago, Hawks' owner Ben Kerner did little to dispel the reports. "Macauley in some instances hasn't done the job, but I have a feeling some of the players have let him down," he commented.

Thus the Hawks head into the sixth game smarting under what amounts to a rebuke by the owner to both coach and players.
