

Stickmen Hampered By Poor Conditions

By LARRY ROTH

Penn State's ever-hustling lacrosse team began its fourth week of practice yesterday in what Coach Earnie Baer terms the worst spring in his 13 years of coaching here.

Baer and his 32 candidates have been battling several inches of snow covering the golf course where they've been getting ready for Saturday's opener at Loyola of Baltimore.

"Right now we're emphasizing conditioning," Baer said. "We're doing a lot of running so we can be in tremendous shape for Loyola. We run two miles a day and it's no picnic getting through that snow. We hope to beat Loyola by outlasting them."

"As for plays, we don't have much choice but to stress defense because it's real hard to work offensive patterns with the field in that condition. The only offense we get in is by practicing on the tennis courts where it's dry."

"But the field isn't my only worry," he continued.

"Lacrosse is a team sport and because of conflicting classes mainly, we've only been getting an average of about 18 guys for each practice session and as a result it's been hard to get them to work together. Baltimore has had some pretty good weather, so Loyola will have an advantage."

Baer, in his fourth year as head coach—he was assistant coach for nine years—thinks this year's team could be better than last year's which posted a 5-4 record.

"On the whole, the team will be green as far as varsity experience goes, Baer said. In fact, five sophs may start this year."

"In addition to these newcomers, we have five returning let-

Kennedy Gets Award as Top Phila. Player

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Providence Coach Joe Mullaney was honored by the Philadelphia Basketball Writers Assn. as eastern college coach of the year last night.

Mullaney's Providence team went to the finals of the National Invitation Basketball Tournament before bowing to Brandley Temple's Bill "Pickles" Kennedy as the outstanding Philadelphia area player.

Others honored at the writers' annual basketball banquet included:

Tom Stith of St. Bonaventure as the outstanding visiting player of the year; Wilt Chamberlain as the standout National Basketball Assn. player and also pro rookie of the year; and Bill Dallas, retired Philadelphia Bulletin sports writer, for 60 years of service and devotion to basketball.

Heading the array of speakers at the dinner were Adolph Rupp, Kentucky basketball coach, and the Rev. Robert Slavin, president of Providence college.

Other speakers were Coaches Eddie Donovan of St. Bonaventure who accepted the award for Stith, Cappy Cappon of Princeton's Ivy League champions, and owner Eddie Gotlieb of the Philadelphia Warriors.

Leading the lettermen are mid-fielder Dick Bullock, defenseman Dave Erwin and attackman Jim Kane. Bullock is captain while Erwin and Kane received honorable mention All-American recognition last season. Erwin is a junior and the other two are seniors.

Attackman Dick Hammond and defenseman Andy Moconyi are the other returning lettermen. Moconyi, starting fullback on the football team two seasons ago, still has a semester of eligibility remaining and is expected to fill a starting berth. Right now he is student teaching, but he'll be back this week although he'll see only spot duty against Loyola.

"As for the goalie situation," Baer said, "I think we have a good one in Jim Irwin. He's a sophomore and lacks experience, but we have a lot of confidence in him."

Athletics Win as Herbert Continues Fine Hurling

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Kansas City's Ray Herbert continued his sensational spring pitching yesterday by shutting out Detroit for seven innings in a 4-1 victory.

Herbert has not been scored on in 18 innings of Grapefruit League competition and he yielded only nine hits. His performance yesterday marked the first time a Kansas City pitcher has gone as far as seven innings this spring.

Howard Reed pitched the final two innings and yielded the lone Detroit run in the eighth.

Dodger Rookie Fined

VERO BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Frank Howard, the Los Angeles Dodgers' $108,000 bonus rookie from Ohio State University, was fined yesterday for failing to show up at a practice game.

General manager Buzzy Bavasi said the amount of the fine will depend on the big slugger's behavior the rest of the spring.

Howard was scheduled to play in a Montreal-Spokane game at the Dodger camp while the varsity club played at West Palm Beach Sunday, but he didn't show up.

"AN EMBARRASSMENT OF RICHES"

Twinkly, lovable old Dr. Wagstaff Sigafos, head of chemistry at the Upper Rhode Island College of Science and Palmistry, cares naught for glory and wealth. All he cares about is to work in his laboratory, to play Mozart quartets with a few cronies, to smoke a good Marlboro, and to throw sticks for his faithful dog Trey to fetch.

So when, after years of patient research, Dr. Sigafos discovered Reverso, a shaving cream which causes whiskers to grow inward instead of outward, thus enabling a man to bite off his beard instead of shaving it, it never even crossed his mind that he had come upon a key to fame and riches; he simply assigned all his royalties from Reverso to the college and went on with his quiet life of working in the laboratory, playing Mozart quartets, smoking good Marlboros and throwing sticks for his faithful dog Trey. (Trey, incidentally, had died some years earlier but habit is a strong thing and Dr. Sigafos to this day continues to throw sticks.)

As everyone knows, Reverso turned out to be a madly successful shaving cream. Royalties in the first month amounted to $290,000, which came in mighty handy, believe you me, because the college had long been postponing some urgently needed repairs—a lightning rod for the men's dormitory, new hoops for the basketball court, leather patches for the chess team's elbows and a penwiper for the Director of Admissions.

Royalties in the first month amounted to $290,000.

In the second month royalties amounted to an even million dollars and the college bought Marlboro cigarettes for all students and faculty members. It is interesting that the college chose Marlboro cigarettes though they could well have afforded more expensive brands. The reason is simply this: you can pay more for a cigarette but you can't get a better flavor, a better smoke. If you think flavor went out when filters came in, try a Marlboro. The filter cigarette with the unfiltered taste. You, too, can smoke like a millionaire at a cost which does no violence to the slimmest of budgets. Marlboros come in soft pack or flip-top box and can be found at any tobacco counter. Millionaires can be found on yachts.

But I digress. We were speaking of the royalties from Reverso which continue to accrue at an astonishing rate—now in excess of one million dollars per week. The college is doing all it can to spend the money; the student-faculty ratio which used to be thirty students to one teacher is now thirty teachers to one student; the Gulf Stream has been purchased for the Department of Marine Biology, the Dean of Women has been gold-plated.

But money does not buy happiness, especially in the college world. Poverty and ivy—that is the academic life—not power and pelf. The Upper Rhode Island College of Science and Palmistry is frankly embarrassed by all this wealth, but I am pleased to report that the trustees are not taking their calamity lying down. Last week they earmarked all royalties for a crash research program headed by Dr. Wagstaff Sigafos to develop a whisker which is resistant to Reverso. Let us all join in wishing the old gentleman success.

The sponsors of this column can't offer you money but they can offer you fine smoking flavor—with or without filter. If you favor filters try a Marlboro. If non-filters are your pleasure pick a Philip Morris.
