

14 Grapplers Score Pins in IM Action

Larry Ottoson, last year's 158-pound independent champ, pinned his man in 24 seconds last night in a 167-pound IM wrestling bout that had hardly begun before it was over.

Ottoson's fall was only one of 14 in a full night of grappling.

Frank Skiddle of Delta Upsilon, fraternity champ at 167 last year, threw Mark Sandson in 3:10 in the 177-pound class.

Tau Kappa Epsilon's two hopefuls on last night's agenda both came through with falls. Phil Kreitner pinned John Reimer, Pi Lambda Phi, in 3 minutes flat. Ted Haller pinned Bill Brown, Tau Phi Delta, in 1:55.

In one of the most exciting matches of the evening, Jeff Lightner of Lambda Chi Alpha hung on to defeat Dale Steadman, Alpha Zeta, 3-0, although held in a pinning combination by Steadman for the last 30 seconds of the match.

Bob Degling, Pi Kappa Alpha, decisioned Emanuel Orfanon of Phi Kappa Tau, 9-3, in a battle of 142-pounders. Degling, last year's runner-up in the independent 142-pound class, used 3 take-downs, a reverse and an escape to defeat Orfanon.

Gene Retallic, a 128-pound independent, piled up 12 points to beat Bob Donaldson, 12-5. Retallic had a near fall, an escape, two reversals and two takedowns in the fast-moving match.

Also in the independent 142-pound class Larry Wolfe and Bernard Reider fought down to the wire with Wolfe coming out on top, 5-4.
