FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

VOL. 60. No. 119

STATE COLLEGE, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 7, 1960

FIVE CENTS

Haber, Clagett, Sherman Win 24 New Assemblymen; 3 Presidents Elected

By ELAINE MIELE

University Party won two class president and 14 Assembly positions and Campus Party won one class president and 10 Assembly positions in the SGA elections completed yesterday.

Herman Weber, (C.), was elected senior class president.

Elections Declared Validated

The Elections Commission unanimously decided last night to consider the SGA elections valid despite the reported misconduct of Campus party members at the polls and a charge that strict controls were not observed at the polls.

John Brandt, Campus party chairman, charged that the present election system was not fool-proof and that the ballot boxes could have been tampered with during the three days of voting.

Leonard Julius, SGA president, said that he did not know what further supervision could have been provided. Elections commission members were at the polls and the ballot boxes were sealed overnight, he added.

Elections committee members decided that the voting had been carried out according to the system which had been set up and that the charge was not valid. University party co-chairman, Michael Hazel, made no formal charges.

Discussion on the misconduct of Campus party members at the polls was brought up at the request of Brandt who wished to hear the reports.

Campus party members were granted permission by the Elections Commission to sit at the polls and tally the number of voters.

Some of the poll watchers did not understand their duty and punched matric cards and handed out ballots, Robert Umstead, Elections Commission chairman, said.

Copies of the "Mug and Jester," an article about the election written by Froth Editor, Alan Elms, were also handed out in the vicinity of the elections.

Any action on these events was postponed by the committee.

He defeated Frank Milus, (U.), 442 to 380.

Spencer McGraw, (U.), is the new junior class president. He won over William Laman, (C.), 577 to 401.

Dean Wharton, (U.), defeated Edwin Urie, (C.), for the freshman class presidency, 700 to 513.

Five University candidates and four Campus candidates will represent the senior class on Assembly.

They are: Edgar Grubb, (U.), 497; Katherine Hughes, (U.), 486; Walter Darran, (U.), 482; Judy Moore, (U.), 448; Richard King, (C.), 472; Judith High, (C.), 465; Robert Clapp (C.), 449; Frederick Meckley, (C.), 448; Jacqueline Leavitt, (U.), 439.

They defeated Richard Kitzinger, (C.), 427; Mary Gomer, (C.), 413; and Arlene Rosipal, (U.), 369.

Five University candidates and two Campus candidates were elected to junior class Assembly positions.

They are Cynthia Xanthopoulos, (C), 525; Lynn Marvel, (C), 524; Jay Huffman, (U.), 681; Judith Weiss, (U.), 643; Robert H. Harrison, (U.), 622; Ruth Rilling, (U.), 552; John Witmer, (U.), 541.

They defeated Suzanne Poland, (C.), 439; Theodore Simon, (C.), 437; and Neil Yarhouse, (C.), 431.

Four Campus party and four University party members were elected to sophomore Assembly positions.

They are David Downes, (C.), 726; Howard Creskoff, (C.), 693; Barbara Adey, (C.), 709; George Henning, (C.), 649; Barbara Watchorn, (U.), 781; Mary Sue Hersey, (U.), 702; Lois Haegley, (U.), 692; and Mary Swed, (U.), 643.

They defeated William Lenker, (U.), 640; Diane Leedy, (U.), 629.

Rutgers Prof to Speak

Dr. James H. Leathem, professor in the Department of Zoology at Rutgers University, will speak on "Hormones and Ovarian Dysfunction" at 4:15 p.m. today in 112 Buckhout.

Leathem has been active in endocrine research for over two decades. He has been especially interested in endocrine control of reproduction.

University Takes Top 2 Offices; 23 Per Cent of Student Body Vote

By KAREN HYNCKEAL

Richard Haber, University Party, has been elected new Student Government Association president.

University's duo of Haber and Donald Clagett swept into the SGA presidency and vice presidency early this morning along with Campus Party's Susan Sherman who was elected secretary-treasurer.

Haber beat Peter Galie by a 1904 to 1563 vote while Clagett defeated John Brandt by a 1767 to 1669 vote.

Miss Sherman's 1894 votes topped Jack Crosby's 1555.

Haber said this about his victory: "We have just passed a milestone in the history of student government elections. This past campaign has witnessed more mud-slinging and down-right nonsense than any in the history of student government here at Penn State.

"It is my feeling that the sentiments of a candidate should be the same no matter whether he wins or loses. I shall continue to work in the best interest of student government, the student body and Penn State."

Galie said, "The leadership of student government is a great responsibility. I am certain Mr. Haber will do his utmost for the betterment of Penn State."

Speaking of his new office, Clagett said, "In winning I can promise only my best efforts to obtain what is good for the student body."

Brandt, who lost by 98 votes, commented, "We think the campaign has exposed the students to new ideas and opinions which had not been out before. We hope these ideas won't be forgotten in the future."

The new feminine voice in SGA said "I'd like to thank everyone who voted for me. I'll do all in my power to make this year a good one for student government."

Crosby offered his congratulations to Miss Sherman, saying, however, "I am compelled to say that I feel nothing but disgust at some of the tactics employed in the campaign and it has not been a pleasant one.

"I am sure, however, that Miss Sherman is well qualified and will do a good job in this (Continued on page two)

Rain, Wind, Cold To Continue Today

Windy and cold weather with showers and snow flurries is expected today and early tonight with a trend towards clearing skies late tonight.

Rather chilly weather should continue for the next several days with intervening periods of mild temperatures.

Mostly cloudy, windy and colder weather is due tonight with a low temperature of 31 degrees.

Tomorrow will be partly cloudy, breezy and continued cool.

Senate to Meet Today

The University Senate will meet at 4:15 today in 121 Sparks.

The Senate is expected to continue discussion of course and curriculum proposals.

ChemPhys Head Elected To Preside Over ICCB

The Intercollegiate Council Board elected Steven Brown, president of Chemistry-Physics Student Council, President last night.

Lawrence Abrams, president of Business Administration Student Council, was elected vice chairman, and Sharon Hoffman, president of Education Student Council, was elected secretary.

Lion's Paw Control Denied by Julius

Leonard Julius, SGA president, denied last night that Lion's Paw asserts any influence in campus politics.

Julius, a member of Lion's Paw, spoke on the "Forum of the Air," sponsored by WDFM and WMAJ.

Also participating in the debate on recent political events on campus were Alan Elms, editor of Froth, Jay Hawley, Lion's Paw member and chairman of SGA Rules Committee and Desmond MasRae, who last month requested an investigation of student government at an SGA Assembly meeting.

MacRae asked Hawley for a definition of Lion's Paw. Hawley answered that: "Lion's Paw is a secret senior men's honorary society dedicated to the betterment of Penn State through the exchange of ideas. It is not a part of student government, nor is it a power group. No decision of the organization is binding on its members."

MacRae then asked why Lion's Paw is a "secret" organization. Hawley explained that this is to "permit a freer exchange of ideas."

Elms asked about Lion's Paw influence in student government. He said that Julius, Larry Byers, vice president of SGA, and Hawley were the only L.P. members participating on Assembly.

Elms charged that Byers, who chairs the Assembly meetings, was in a position "to exert considerable influence in SGA with this power." Julius then asked for instances of such action. Elms said he had not attended any Assembly meetings this year but had followed the action in The Daily Collegian.

Elms then charged Lion's Paw with influencing the recent attempted fix of the spring election by James "Tim" Nelligan. He also said that Theodore Pauloski, a Lion's Paw member, had called (continued on page two)

Bonn Attacks Soviet Hate Campaign

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government protested yesterday the Soviet hate-Germany campaign in a note so sharply worded it falls just short of a breakoff in diplomatic relations.

The note was delivered to the Soviet Foreign Office in Moscow by Ambassador Hans Kroll. The text was made public in Bonn.

The West Germans singled out for special attack what was called the campaign of slander put on by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in his recent visit to France, their strongest Continental ally. The note said Bonn had taken up diplomatic relations with Moscow in an effort to ease international tensions. That was in 1955.

As a result of Khrushchev's utterances in France, the note said, Bonn "cannot but gain the impression that the Soviet Union has not acted in the same spirit."

"The Federal Republic" of West Germany, the note said, "cannot believe in the sincerity of the professed Soviet efforts to relax tensions so long as the Soviet Union seeks throughout the world to awaken hatred and hostility against the German people."

That kind of language rarely is used in communications between governments maintaining normal diplomatic relations. There was, however, no threat to break relations and it did not seem likely Bonn meant to go that far.

It appeared Adenauer wanted to get himself vigorously on record against the Soviet campaign before the start of the Big Four summit conference May 16.

Khrushchev's theme was that "the Federal Republic, and in particular the Chancellor, harbored Fascist, militaristic and revengeful-seeking ideas," it said, and his aim appeared to be to shatter the new friendship between West Germany and France.

"But his campaign of slander did not achieve its aims," the note added. "The Federal Republic knows that it can count on the faithfulness and friendship of its allies."
