crucial year for student government."
Approximately 23 per cent of the student body voted in the election which was one of the most controversial in the past decade. Counting of the ballots, which began at 9 last night, took until almost 2 this morning.
A somber Leonard Julius, SGA president, paced the floors of the HUB card room where the counting was done and cracked his first smile when the results had been tabulated.
"I'm certain that those candidates who were successful will more than justify the trust placed in them by their fellow students. My heartiest congratulations to the new SGA officers and Assemblymen," he said when the vote was announced.

Lowenberg to Talk At HEc weekend

Dr. Miriam E. Lowenberg, head of the Department of Food and Nutrition, will discuss her recent trip around the world at the 11th annual Home Economics Spring Weekend to be held tomorrow and Saturday.
Dr. Lowenberg will speak about nutrition throughout the world at 8 p.m., tomorrow in the HUB assembly room.
Although she will be speaking mainly about people in the place where she stayed, Dr. Lowenberg will also touch briefly on nutritional inadequacies and how they affect the food patterns and general health of the people in Coastal West Africa, the Near East and the Far East.

a compulsory residence hall meeting in the North Halls area, where he is a counselor, to "promote the University party in the past week's election."
Julius refuted both of these charges as untrue, and said that the residence hall meeting had not been compulsory.

Adie Storm in spite of her physical imperfections, speech impediment and the handicap of being a Kappa is the winner of our Easter Week in Puerto Rico.

Eight month old Nina, our able assistant in these matters pulled out Adie's name from a jar containing 58 names. These people were eligible because of their face or name appearing in this column, or had their pictures in our display case.

Adie, it might interest you to know that three of the last five girls we've sent away for Easter vacations, have met their future husbands amongst the natives. The other two are still there. Your airline tickets and accommodations await you at the studio.
