

COME TO CHURCH

A Week for Easter

The Easter Vacation time is almost upon us. The students look forward to this vacation from their academic surroundings . . . some will take holiday trips to Bermuda and Florida, some will use the time to catch up on their studies and the piles of term paper assignments they have collected, some have planned a full schedule of job interviews, some will simply relax with their families. But in the hubub of vacation are we losing the significance of Easter? Perhaps. Now is the time to reorient yourself—April 17 is not just a holiday, it is Easter, a symbolic day on which to remember and revitalize our faith in Christ. It is a time for reawakening our souls through examination of our lives.
