

Rhee May Appoint Old Foes to Cabinet

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — President Syngman Rhee was reported yesterday to be considering some of his old political foes for Cabinet posts in an effort to still the rising opposition demands for new nationwide elections.

There also was a call for Lee Kipoong, vice president-elect, to quit Lee, a member of Rhee's Liberal party, was named vice president in the March elections to take office Aug. 15. This week's bloody uprising against the government stemmed from charges that the voting was rigged.

Venezuelan Rebel Chief Still Free

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Leader of Venezuela's vest-pocket revolt fled to the hills yesterday pursued by soldiers and peasants. Two leaders were reported captured by peasants wielding machetes, but the rebel chief still is at large.

Late reports indicated the uprising at San Cristobal was launched by a few conspirators under Jose Mario Castro Leon, an ambitious ex-general in the air force. His band slipped across the border Wednesday from neighboring Colombia.

With the collapse of the revolt, the leaders took flight for the border, now sealed on both sides by Colombian and Venezuelan soldiers.

Reports from San Cristobal said peasants, brandishing their razor-sharp machetes, seized ex-Col. Juan de Dios Moncada Vidal, one of Castro Leon's top aides and Mr. Benabe Serrano, a young officer who joined the rebels. Castro Leon got away.

The rebels evidently hoped to set up such a ruckus in San Cristobal, an isolated provincial capital, that the rest of the country would think a big uprising was under way and join it.

Crowds of citizens attacked the rebels, then soldiers defected, and President Romulo Betancourt rallied such a wave of popular support that the revolt was crumbling within hours.

Harness Racing Dispute Intensifies in Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The hot dispute over legalized harness racing in Allegheny County is getting hotter.

Full-page advertisements appeared in community newspapers around Pittsburgh urging defeat of the referendum. They were bought by a group of Protestant clergymen from Pittsburgh's West End.

Turnpike Conspirators

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The convictions of four men accused of conspiring to defraud the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission of $19½ million were upheld yesterday by the State Supreme Court. It was a 5-2 decision.

Huge Satellite To Be Tested

WASHINGTON (AP) — U. S. space scientists will try next month to place a balloon-type satellite, tall as a 10-story building, into orbit 1,000 miles above the earth.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced the try will be made on May 5 from Cape Canaveral, Fla.

The satellite is intended as the forerunner of a series designed to provide rapid, sure-fire, long-range communications spanning oceans and continents.

The satellite will serve as a type of reflector against which radio signals can be bounced back and forth among stations on the earth.

Kennedy Rips Religious Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) ripped into the religious issue yesterday with the assertion that he is not "a Catholic candidate for president."

Following Kennedy to the platform before the American Society of Newspaper Editors, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) denounced those who have injected religion into the Democratic presidential nomination contest.

Humphrey said he doesn't want to be nominated by anti-Catholic votes and wouldn't want to be president if that meant his party would be split in a controversy over sects.

Humphrey, a Congregationalist, is battling Kennedy in predominantly Protestant West Virginia. Kennedy's religion has become an issue in the campaign preceding the May 10 primary.

Kennedy, in an emotion-charged talk that kept the editors listening intently, tacked off a long list of reasons why he said his Catholicism should not handicap his bid for the presidency.

He got rousing applause when he ended.
