

35 Killed In Plane Crash Over Congo

STANLEYVILLE, Belgian Congo (AP)—A Belgian airliner circling in heavy fog crashed yesterday near the top of a mountain in the jungles, killing all 35 persons aboard.

The Sobelair Belgian airliner, a DC4 bound for Elizabethville from Brussels, exploded after crashing soon after dawn.

Officials in Brussels said that all 28 passengers, except one girl, were Belgian nationals. Three missionaries and five children were on board. The plane carried seven crewmen.

The four-engine plane, named "Lualaba" after a Congo river, reported shortly before the crash that it was circling the equatorial forest regions over Bunia, in the northeastern Congo. Fog was blanketing the area. Reports from the scene said the plane hit only 105 feet from the summit.

It was the 13th major plane disaster of the year. A total of 501 persons have been killed in crashes in various parts of the world.

It was the first crash of a Sobelair aircraft. The company has been operating nonscheduled but frequent flights to and from the Congo since 1946.

The plane left Brussels Wednesday. After a stop in Rome, where it picked up two additional passengers, it headed for Elizabethville.

A German girl identified as Miss Bamler of Hamburg, was one of the two to join the flight in Rome.

The only other non-Belgian aboard was the plane's commander, Capt. Richard Allan Whiteside, a Briton.

Ike, De Gaulle Review Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower reviewed East-West problems with Charles de Gaulle, after giving the French president a ceremonial reception yesterday, and reported afterward it was a "very good conversation."

A spokesman for the tall French soldier-statesman said he also was pleased with the initial, 70-minute talk in their four-day round of strategy conferences.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said Eisenhower and de Gaulle, meeting as friends from war time, ranged over quite a number of topics. He did not identify them.

Secrecy of Soviets Attacked by West

GENEVA (AP) — The Western powers declared yesterday the Soviet Union is obsessed with military secrecy. They expressed fears this may hide aggressive intentions despite Soviet calls for peaceful coexistence.

U.S. Ambassador Frederick M. Eaton bluntly told the deadlocked 10-nation disarmament conference that Soviet insistence on secrecy was the main cause for the failure of every East-West discussion of disarmament.

Rockefeller Heaps Praise on Nixon

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York heaped high and unusual praise on Richard M. Nixon yesterday. He gave him everything but what the vice president probably wants the most—Rockefeller support in the race for the Republican presidential nomination.

Few candidates — and Nixon now seems a shoo-in—ever got more kindly treatment
