

Golfers Top Orange 4 Lions Advance to Mat Finals

Revenge was sweet for the Penn State golfers Saturday as they beat Syracuse, 5-2 for their fourth straight win of the campaign.

The win, State's fourth in six outings, avenged a 4-3 loss to the Orangemen last year.

Lion captain Dick Burgoon and teammate Bob Devine got State off to a good start with identical 3-2 wins over Syracuse's Bob Armstrong and Stew Wallace.

Burgoon was leading 5-up on the 13th and held off a late rally for his win.

Syracuse came right back to tie it with wins by Bill Conway and Tom Brennan. Conway beat Roy Altman 6 and 5 while Brennan had to go two extra holes for a 1-up victory over Ed Kormos.

The Lions wrapped things up with successive wins by John Morton, Hadyn Thomas, and Bob Rutherford.

Morton beat Don Dipasquale, 2-up, after leading by five at the end of the first nine. Thomas and Rutherford turned in one-sided scores over the Orange's Gary Stahl and Bruce Ross, 5-3 and 8-6.

Coach Boyle's linksmen have two matches this week. They travel to Philadelphia tomorrow to play Penn and Saturday they face Lehigh here.

DICK BURGOON

Summary
Burgoon (PS) beat Armstrong (S), 3 and 2
Devine (PS) beat Wallace (S), 3 and 2

Brennan (S) beat Kormos (PS), 1-up on the 20th
Morton (PS) beat Dipasquale (S), 2-up
Thomas (PS) beat Stahl (S), 5 and 3
Rutherford (PS) beat Ross (S), 8 and 6

Penn Staters Johnston Oberly, Tony Scordo, Paul Stegner, and John Trojan all scored wins in the District II wrestling finals in Rec Hall Saturday night to advance to the final Olympic trials, slated to start in Ames, Iowa, Thursday.

Oberly was pitted against big Don Learman in the heavyweight division. The match was close for the first six minutes, but when Learman was put on the defensive by the Olympic rules, "Big O" applied the pressure and pinned him in 7:09.

Oberly's win snapped Learman's 17-match win streak. Learman and Oberly were the only entrants in the division and under Olympic rules both men are eligible for the trip to the Iowa State campus for the finals.

Scordo decided Lock Haven's Chuck Walizer in the afternoon action and then pinned Phil Stuyvesant in 4:36 to finish second to Dick Scorse in the featherweight division.

Trojan was decided by first place winner Bob Benson in Friday's light-heavyweight action, but he came back to pin Nelson Woolcock in 7:55 and finish second.

In middleweight action, sophomore Stegner pinned Bill Moore in 11:45 but lost in the finals to Akron's rough Russ Pier.

State College's Dick Tressler pulled the biggest upset of the evening by pinning Pitt's captain and former Eastern champ Larry Lauchle in 1:26 of their bantam weight bout.

State grapplers Ron Pifer, Hal Byers, Ev Barber, Ray Nunamaker, Tom Canty and Al Feingold were all eliminated in Saturday afternoon's matches.

Pifer, entered in the welterweight class, was pinned by former Olympian Elmie Fischer in 2:30 for his first loss and then was thrown by Cornell's Eastern champ Steve Friedman in 11:30. Friedman later decided Fischer for the title.

Bvers advanced to the Saturday matches before losing to former Lehigh grappler Greg Ruth, now in the Army. Bvers finished third behind Ruth and Mark Murray.

Feingold lost by a referee's decision to Clearfield's Gary Fowler after being pinned by Middle Atlantic AAU champ Tom Balent in 3:22. Balent decided Maynard Augst for the flyweight crown.

Oberly, Trojan, Stegner, Balent and Tressler all are planning to make the trip to the finals but Scordo is undecided.

Approximately 250 grapplers from 14 districts will take part in the three-day tourney.

College Coach Gets Royal Job

CINCINNATI (P) — The Cincinnati Royals reached into the college ranks yesterday to get a new coach, and gave him the cheering word that they were confident the great Oscar Robertson would be on his team.

Charlie Wolf, a tall, gaunt fellow who has coached Villa Madonna College in nearby Covington, Ky., is the new man in charge of the Cincinnati team of the National Basketball Association.

"We are so confident that Robertson will be with us next season that we have sold about $37,000 worth of season tickets with the stipulation that money will be returned if he is not," Tom Grace, executive vice president, said.

The "Big O" of college basketball cannot be signed until after the Olympic games later this year. Oscar, as everyone who follows basketball knows, broke virtually every college scoring record in the books.

Wolf, who succeeded Tom Marshall, is the third new coach in the NBA since the season closed. Paul Seymour switched from Syracuse to St. Louis, replacing "easy" Ed Macauley. Alex Hannum replaced Seymour as head man of the Nats.

Injuries Reduce Derby Field

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Injuries have knocked Noble Noor and Weatherwise out of the May 7 Kentucky Derby making three top contenders who have been sidelined in 24 hours.

The Cain Hoy Stables main hope, All Hands, was declared unfit Sunday after a check showed a fracture of the sesmoid bone. The Harry F. Guggenheim racer had an accident in his stall last Thursday at Keeneland.

Noble Noor suffered a slight foreleg injury in winning the California Derby at Bay Meadows Saturday. Weatherwise, the Green Tree Stable hope, turned up with a bruised heel at Keeneland.

All three of these highly sensitive thoroughbreds had been given a good rating in the Caliente future book. Weatherwise had been rated a 10-1 shot.

Dr and Mrs John R. Smith, owners of the stretch-running Noble Noor, said Sunday they noted a slight swelling on the horse's right foreleg where he apparently had rapped himself in Saturday's race.

The injury is not too serious but the Smiths decided against shipping him to Louisville.

Trainer John Gaver detected the Weatherwise injury. He said the horse seemed to be tender getting around his stall and a veterinarian from New York was flown in to make a double check. The veterinarian confirmed the bruise.

Earlier this spring, Warfare, the top 2-year-old of 1959 and advance derby favorite, was eliminated from the 3-year-old picture by a bone chip in his left hind ankle.

Tompson remains the top advance choice for the Louisville race at odds of 2-1.

Lion Gridders Hold Edge on 1960 Foes

Penn State owns a combined record of 79 victories, 61 defeats, and 12 ties with its 1960 football opponents.

Five opponents — Boston University, Missouri, Illinois, Maryland, and Holy Cross — have never beaten State. The Nittany Lions stand 6-0-0 with B.U., 1-0-0 with Missouri, 2-0-0 with Illinois, 6-0-0 with Holy Cross, and 5-0-0 with Maryland.

Penn State holds a narrow 17-15-5 edge over Syracuse in the series that started in 1922, and is 17-7-2 against West Virginia in a series that began in 1904.

Only Army and Pittsburgh, the oldest opponents on the schedule, hold winning margins. Army owns six wins against two ties and two State victories in the series that started in 1899. Pitt has won 33 games since 1893 in a series which shows three ties and 23 Penn State triumphs.

Maryland Golfer Will Miss Tourney

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP) — Deane Beman, American holder of the British amateur golf championship, will not defend his title this year.

The royal and ancient club announced yesterday Beman had written saying he could not spare time from his studies at the University of Maryland.

Beman missed the Terp's match with Penn State to play in the Masters. Maryland beat the Lions in the first match of the year.
