

Student Riots Erupt In 3 Turkish Cities

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — Student demonstrations erupted in three Turkish cities yesterday against Premier Adnan Menderes and bloodshed resulted in clashes with police.

The government reacted quickly by extending martial law in Istanbul and Ankara for three months.

The most violent clash was in the capital, Ankara, where about 100 students were injured and unconfirmed reports said four students and a policeman were killed. Students and police clashed there in a melee of clubs and tear gas.

Demonstrations were more orderly in Istanbul, Turkey's largest city, and at Izmir, site of a big North Atlantic Treaty Organization base in western Turkey.

Army tanks, mounted troops and infantry surrounded the walls of Istanbul University, where 2000 students started a sitdown strike. As darkness fell, the students sent up chants of "liberty" and "Menderes resign."

They said they would stay on the campus until the 61-year-old Premier quits and until 11 comrades they claim fell in Thursday's riots are returned to them for martyrs' funerals. They also claim 40 of their number are missing.

The military commanders ordered all universities and colleges in Istanbul and Ankara closed until May 29. But the 2000 students enrolled at Istanbul University ignored the orders and assembled in groups of two and three on the campus throughout the day.

The Interior Ministry said only one student was killed in the outbreak of trouble in Istanbul Thursday. There have been unconfirmed reports that more were killed.

Committee Increases Ike's Budget

WASHINGTON (AP)—The powerful House Appropriations Committee yesterday recommended hundreds of millions of dollars more than President Eisenhower asked for missile-firing submarines, airborne alert readiness and other military preparations it deemed urgent.

But in its final form, the $39,337,867,000 money bill the committee sent to the House was only $121,967,000 more than Eisenhower's revamped military budget for the bookkeeping year starting on July 1.

That was because—in redrafting parts of that budget—the committee lopped off other hundreds of millions from administration proposals.

Among other things, the committee denied 293 million dollars for another conventionally-powered aircraft carrier which the House group said isn't needed.

The committee accepted the Defense Department's stand that the best force is a versatile one embracing missiles, manned bombers, rocket-shooting subs, carriers and other weapons systems.

It noted — but did not argue with — the Defense Department's contentions that while the Russians may outgun the United States in long-range missile power over the next few years, there will be no over-all gap in U.S. power to deter any Soviet attack.

Clark Denies Recent Payola Accusations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dick Clark told congressional payola investigators yesterday he favored some songs over others purely because he had a knack for detecting hits.

Clark, the record-spinning raver of the younger generation, swore the prospect of enriching himself by plugging tunes in which he had a financial stake had nothing to do with the fare he serves on his television shows.

The suave, 30-year-old disc jockey, who prefers to call himself an entertainer, conceded that in one instance he agreed to share in the profits of a record titled "Butterfly" and finally accepted $7,000.

After four hours on the stand, the subcommittee ordered him to return for additional quizzing on Monday morning.

Russians Watch Submarine Tests

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Soviet trawler watched the new U. S. Navy Polaris submarine George Washington conducting tests only 60 miles off Long Island, the Navy disclosed yesterday.

It made public a photograph of the Soviet ship, taken on Tuesday, as the trawler cruised within a mile of where the submarine was testing out its missile-launching equipment.

The trawler was identified by the Navy as the Vega. The picture indicated the Soviet ship is about 222 feet long and that it carries radar.

Since the testing site off Long Island is in international waters, the Soviet craft had every legal right to be there.

Sleepy Hollow Hit By Sorority Scandal

Professor of Male-Female Relations, Ichabod Crane, Feared Murdered

Sleepy Hollow, Pa., April 30—Scandal rocked this little town just north of State College area today. The disappearance of Professor Ichabod Crane, a specialist in male-female relations, brought to light a vicious ring of men selling fake key-shaped sorority pins to independent girls.

The racketeers were telling the girls that the key-shaped pins would enable them to get men. Police received many complaints today from girls who had purchased the pins. Several of the duped coeds said their hair was turning blond, emblematic of the stereotyped key-shaped sorority pin.

Chief of Police reported more than 10,000 keys had been distributed to unwary girls. He warned all men to check the authenticity of the pins before getting pinned or engaged.

Mrs. Crane reported last seeing her husband in the vicinity of the Zeta Beta Tau-McKee Hall Carnival Booth located on the intramural football field. She said he had planned to meet with Little Augie, Big Stud Johnson and Max the Shiv, all members of his notorious gang.

The chief said all indications pointed to foul play. Crane's gang is known to have opposed the Headless Bossman, syndicate leader in the Nittany Valley. The Bossman has not been seen for several days.

Further word on the missing Ichabod Crane will be broadcast every fifteen minutes from 7 p.m. to midnight at the Zeta Beta Tau-McKee Hall Carnival Booth, located on the intramural football field.
