Biasecker Gets 10-3 Triumph

Righthander Marlin Biasecker scattered six hits yesterday and sophomore Bill Burkhardt hit a home run his first time up to lead Penn State to a 10-3 win over Bucknell at Beaver Field.

Biasecker's third win enabled the Lions to break a three-game losing streak and run their season record to 7-5.

The Steelton fireballer didn't give up a hit after the fifth inning and struck out five en route to the win. He walked only two.

Burkhardt's homer came in the second inning with the score tied and Jim Suplizio on board. Making his first start of the year, the 6-3 shortstop caught a Mike Kasnick fast ball and sent it over the right center field wall to put State ahead, 3-1.

The Lions added single runs in the third and fourth, the latter coming when Bill Benton stole home with two out.

State wrapped things up with five big runs in the fifth. Tom Durbin started the uprising with a walk and Zeke DeLong followed with a single.

Benton bounced out second to first, but Jim Suplizio and Harry Beans blasted run producing singles for the sixth and seventh innings.

Burkhardt drew another walk to load the bases and Biasecker bounced out third to first with a run scoring.

Two men were out and men on second and third with Dick Landis coming to the plate. The Lion captain, hitting only .043 before the game, lined a single to center, scoring Beans and Burkhardt with the final runs.

Kasnick, a surprise starter for the Bisons (1-7), took the loss, his third against one win. He went six full innings before Norm Lochten came in to mop up in the seventh.

Lion coach Joe Bedenk was forced to use a revamped infield due to injuries and illness. His regular shortstop, Bob Hlobak, has been hampered by an infected toe while leading hitter Larry Feglev is in the hospital with the measles. He's expected out soon, but he's still a question mark for the Maryland game Saturday.

CAUGHT AT FIRST—Lion rightfielder Zeke DeLong is tagged out at first base by Bucknell's Vic Manuele during yesterday's game won by the Lions, 10-3. DeLong was used as the decoy in a delayed steal which enabled Tom Durbin to score from 3rd.

Another sophomore, Bill Riden, started in Feglev's second base slot and fielded perfectly but went 0-4 at the plate. Burkhardt, on the other hand, had a good day at the plate, but made two errors which led to the Bucknell runs.

Lion Golfers to Compete In Eastern Tournament

Penn State's golf team will be among 15 eastern colleges competing for the FIGA team and individual titles at Pitt's Wildwood course Saturday.

Yale, which has won the team title six out of the last seven years, is favored to take the championship back to New Haven for the second straight year. But Penn State, winner of second place honors last year may pull a surprise if Burgoon and company play up to potential.

Among the teams Penn State will be facing in the tourney are Georgetown and Penn, winners over the Lions in regular season competition.

Besides Burgoon, Bob Devine, Roy Altman, Ed Kormos, John Morton, Havdn Thomas and Bob Rutherford will represent the Blue and White in the 36 round competition Saturday, with the five best tallies determining the squad's score for the team championship.

Then Sunday and Monday the 16 golfers with the best scores will compete for the EIGA crown. Burgoon, who won medalist honors at last year's tourney, is a definite threat for top honors this year. "Burgoon is our best contender for the title," said Lion Coach Joe Boyle, "but Devine could easily win if he plays as well as he did last year."

Other top contenders according to Boyle will be Tom Treese of Pitt, Mark Stewart of Georgetown, Mike Phillips and Ted Weiss of Yale and Penn's Don Nourbury. Nourbury edged Phillips on the Princeton links last year for the crown.

The tourney will mark the second time this year the Lions have played on the Wildwood course. They beat Pitt there, 5-2, during Easter recess.

Badminton Finalists To Meet for Title

Phi Epsilon Pi's Bob Gross and Dave Burstin will meet tonight at 7 in Rec Hall to decide the IM fraternity badminton championship.

Gross easily beat Larry Freedman of Phi Sigma Delta, 15-1, 15-8, to move into the finals, while his fraternity brother, Burstin, won 15-10, 15-8 over Alpha Zeta's Al Horne.
