

Debate Squad Wins Certificate

Members of the negative team of the Penn State Men's debate squad received a certificate of excellence and recorded five wins and one loss in weekend competition at the Eastern Forensic Debate Tournament in Flushing, N.Y.

The affirmative team was represented by David Goodhart, sophomore in business administration from Rutherford, N.J., and Vernon Barger, senior in engineering science from Canonsville. Their record was two wins and four losses.

The negative team included Alan Elms, senior in psychology from La Center, Ky., and Peter Galie, junior in labor management relations from Conshohocken.

Goodhart received an honorable mention in the extemporaneous speaking contest. Elms and Galie placed first in one of three rounds in the persuasive speaking contest.
