 were:
 Stephen Ott, spoon man; Richard Lucas, barrel man; Lawrence Byers, cane man; Vincent Marino, pipe man; Theodore Haller, torch man; and Patrick Botula, William Jaffe and Samuel Minor, mace men.

Following presentation of the men's awards, Miss Clark announced a surprise award, presented to Martin Leshner, chairman of the Senior Class Day committee. Leshner was selected permanent secretary of the Class of 1960.

The only disappointing aspect of the program, according to George L. Donovan, advisor for Class Day, was the low attendance, estimated at between two and three hundred people.
