Quantico Trips Lion Spikers

Brown Records Wins in 100,220

Penn State's track team lost a meet Saturday, their second in a row, but they couldn't have looked better in defeat.

The score, 74-57, doesn't indi-cate the closeness of the meet be-tween the Lions and the Quantico Marines, one of the top track aggregations in the country.

Except for the pole vault, State battled Coach Ben Moore's squad on almost even terms. Both teams took seven first places, with Mel Ramey and Quantico's Charlie Latting tying for top honors in the broad jump.

But Quantico swept the pole vault, racking up nine valuable points. Mel Schwartz and Dave his sub-par showing, he also com-plained of a poor runway. Bob Brown was the only double winner of the day. He roared quantico, 3. Metzgar, 200.7 (new meet 220--1. Brown, Penn State, 2. Collymore, Winner of the day. He roared quantico, 3. Metzgar, Penn State, 21.5 Penn State, and Latting, Quantico, 3 from three yards back at the 50-yaid mark to beat Quantico's (477, Walt Fillman in the 100. In the store, 1.1) water for the store of the store

Wind Hampers Moran's Run

Wind can play strange tricks up dust storms and menoty of the performers. sometimes. Saturday on Beaver the performers. "I think he could have done Field it played one on Ed Moran. it," said Lion track Coach Chick The Penn State grad student Werner, "but the wind was too ing southpaw Darrell Massey of Loyola University for a bonus re Loyola University for a bonus re was entered in the mile run in the Penn State-Quantico dual meet by special permission from coaches Chick Werner and Major Ben Moore. The race had been sanctioned by the A.A.U., and Moran was shooting for a 4.02, the qualifying standard for the olympics. Not only did Moran miss the standard, but he might have missed a four minute mile be-cause of a strong wind that scam-pered over Beaver Field kicking at the Coliseum Relays May 20.

Bosox Sign Collegian

Army Cops EIGA Crown; ion Linksmen Take 3rd

Special to The Collegian PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 9 – Penn's Don Norbury shot a phenomenal 69-72-141 yesterday to retain his EIGA individual championship in a downpour here.

Army edged the Quakers for the team title Saturday, with Penn State finishing third.

Pitt's Wildwood course was water-logged throughout the tourney and forced a change in the plans for the individual play. Sunday's rain completely inundated several of the greens and caused tournament director Walt Cummins to cancel the day's 'rounds.

Faced with the prospect of hav-ing 72 holes of match-play in one day Cummins and the assembled ^{Chicago} 12 14 coaches agreed to stage a 36-hole medal-play tournament in Chicago 28 stead.

MAJOR

LEAGUES

American W, I ïL.

The Associated Press

Pct.

G.B.

210 West College Avenue Open: 7:30 - 5:30 Daily . Saturday 7:30 - 4:30 Watch for our weekly SPECIALS!

pered over Beaver Field kickinglat the Coliseum Relays May 20. JACKHARPERJACKHARPERJACKHARPERJACKHARPERJACKHARPERJACKHAR

THE ATHERTON ...

Visit our second floor . . . sten up to an Atherton suit.

WASHWEARABLE SUIT

IARPERJ

What you wear, when and where you wear it is always important. Wherever you go this summer be cool and comfortable, yet have that "get ahead" look with our "Atherton" washwearable. from $39.95

Jack Barde

Custom Shop for Men

Around the corner from Bostonian Ltd.

JÁCKHARPERJACKHARPERJACKHARPERJACKHARPERJAC ACKHARPERJACKHARPERJACKHARPERJAC JACKHARPERJACKHARPERJACKHARPERJACKHARPERJACKHARPERJACKHAR