

Seniors To Get La Vies On Monday

The 1960 La Vie will be distributed to graduating seniors beginning on Monday, May 16. Distribution will be made between 8 and 11:45 a.m. and 1 and 4:45 p.m. in the Hetzel Union card room, according to the following schedule:

Monday - Colleges of Education, Engineering and Architecture and Physical Education and Athletics.

Tuesday - Colleges of Agriculture, Business Administration and Mineral Industries.

Wednesday - Colleges of Chemistry and Physics, Home Economics and Liberal Arts.

Those students who are unable to pick up their books according to this schedule may obtain their copies on Thursday, May 19. Seniors who received their degrees in January, will receive their books through the mail.

This year's 522-page annual was edited by Kenneth B. Florence, senior in psychology from Cleveland, Ohio. Eleanor T. Zanello, senior in applied arts from Philadelphia, was art editor.

Accounting Club Will Meet

The Accounting Club will hold a public accounting forum as its final meeting of the semester 7:30 tonight in the Nittany Lion Inn assembly room.

Refreshments will be served. The meeting is open to the public.

WDFM Will Air Lion's Paw Debate

"Lion's Paw at Penn State," a recently circulated pamphlet concerning the influence of that senior men's society, will be the topic of WDFM's "Forum of the Air" at 9 tonight.

In an unrehearsed debate 1959-60 Lion's Paw members Frank Pearson, past University party clique chairman, and Jay Hawley, past chairman of the SGA Rules Committee, will meet non-members Alan Elms, past editor of Froth, and John Brandt, recently defeated Campus Party candidate for SGA vice president. An audience of 25 persons will be accommodated on a first-come-first-serve basis in the WDFM studio, third floor Sparks.

Rose Receives Grant

A grant of $31,050 from the Public Health Service, National Heart Institute, will be used by Dr. Arthur Rose, professor of chemical engineering, for research entitled "High Temperature Preparative Vapor Chromatography."
