Levine, Borland Share Honors

Bobbi Levine, senior in journalism from Connellsville, and Judith Borland, junior in medical technology from New York City, N. Y., tied for first place last night in the annual speech contest sponsored by Delta Alpha Delta, speech honorary society.

Thirteen women participated in the contest which was open to every coed. The topic for discussion was "Is It Desirable for Colleges to Train Women for Equality in a Man's Society?"

Fifty judges, members of the Woman's Debate Squad, chose the two winners from among seven finalists.

The finalists were: Pat Gardiner, Ruth Hymen, Anita Kurman, Elizabeth Weihe, Bobbi Levine, and Judy Borland.

Miss Borland and Miss Levine will share a large silver trophy. Each girl will keep the trophy for one semester.
