

Golfers Beat Bisons, Clinch Winning Log

By JOHN MORRIS
The Penn State golf team clinched a winning season yesterday by downing highly touted Bucknell, 13½-7½, on the Bison's home links.

Coach Joe Boyle's Lions now stand at 6-3 with only two meets to go on a rough schedule.

The Lions played under the Nassau scoring system for the second time this year and made quick work of Bucknell's Middle Atlantic Conference champs.

In Nassau match scoring points are awarded for the low scores on the first and second nines, and another point is given for the lowest total score.

Lion captain Dick Burgoon led the onslaught against the Bisons. The lanky senior was medalist for the day with a 72 and beat MAC individual champion Bob Etzweiler, 3-0.

Bob Devine rebounded from a poor showing in last weekend's EIGA tourney with a 74, good enough for a 3-0 win over Bison second man Jerry Lindholm.

Bob Schad split the front nine point with little Roy Altman, but had little trouble from the Lion veteran on the last nine

IM Golf Tournament Moves into Quarters

Eight fraternity teams will compete this week for the quarter-final spots in IM golf as the tournament enters the third week of competition.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, last year's champion, will play Alpha Tau Omega, and the winner will face either Lambda Chi Alpha or Theta Chi for the semi-final place in the top bracket.

In the second bracket Alpha Sigma Phi plays Phi Delta Theta, while Beta Sigma Rho meets Alpha Chi Sig.

and won, 2½-½. Bison senior Bill Curtiss had one of the best days of his college career and downed Lion fourth man Ed Kormos, 3-0. Kormos played well enough to win most matches but Curtiss blazed around the Bucknell course and wound up with a 75.

Junior John Morton continued his steady play for the Lion linksmen and defeated John McDonald with ease to add three points to the Nittanies' total.

Curt Mull, a promising Bison sophomore, edged veteran Haydn Thomas on the front nine, but Thomas fired back to take the second nine and the match, 2-1.

Bob Rutherford added the final points to the Lions' winning score with a 2-1 win over Pete Sang.

Summary
Burgoon (PS) beat Etzweiler (B), 3-0
Devine (PS) beat Lindholm (B), 3-0
Schad (B) beat Altman (PS), 2½-1
Curtiss (B) beat Kormos (PS), 3-0
Morton (PS) beat McDonald (B), 3-0
Thomas (PS) beat Mull (B), 2-1
Rutherford (PS) beat Sang (B), 2-1
