

LaX Team Faces Garnet Today in Defensive Battle

By DEAN BILLICK

It's been a long time between wins for the Penn State lacrosse team, but today's battle against Swarthmore at 3:30 on Beaver Field shapes up as the Lions' best chance to break their six game losing streak.

Swarthmore is having an average year, with a 3-3-1 record and one of their losses was to Lehigh, a team that beat Penn State, 10-5, Wednesday.

Penn State and Swarthmore both have been plagued with weak attacks this year. Swarthmore has averaged only four goals a game, while the Lions have been doing no better, averaging a little under four goals per game.

Coach Earnie Baer summed up the Lions' chances this way. "All we have to do is score four or five goals Saturday and we should win. Our defense should be able to hold them, but we have just been a funny team, so we will just have to wait and see," he said.

Swarthmore has been a funny team this year too. The Garnet lost only two starters from last year's Penn-Delaware champs and Coach Avery Blake was expecting one of the finest teams in Swarthmore history.

The Swarthmore attack has all three starters from last year's 8-2 team, including All-American Bob Heaton and high scoring Dick Quarles. Senior John Darley rounds out the Garnet attack.

Former high school All-American Terry Maisel and football speedster Billy Robinson head the Swarthmore midfield. Two time letterwinner Bill Boehnler is the third member.

Defense has long been Swarthmore's strong point. The Garnet is noted for its tight zone defense and last year they ranked among the top five in the nation. The Lions have played against only one zone defense this year, and that was their lone win, an 8-3 verdict over Loyola.

Swarthmore lost All-American defenseman Tom Stevenson through graduation, but they still have two starters back from last

Netmen Lose 7-2; Play At Syracuse

Special to The Collegian
HAMILTON, N.Y., May 13

Sophomore tennis star Jim Baker snapped out of his recent slump yesterday by upsetting Gene Doo, one of the top players in the East, but it wasn't enough as Penn State dropped a 7-2 decision to Colgate.

It was the eighth straight win for Colgate over the Lions and upped their series edge to 21-2. The loss dropped State's mark to 2-7 but the Lions can improve it with a win at Syracuse today.

Baker led off for Coach Sherm Fogg's netters and was the lone Lion to win in the singles. After a slow start, Baker came back and beat Doo, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4.

Lion captain Jerry Carp was not as successful and he lost to Don Rankin, 2-6, 6-0, 6-3. From then on Colgate swept the singles in straight sets. Johnny Blanck lost to Colgate's number three man Wade Rockafellow, 6-3, 6-3.

Garry Moore got the call in the fourth spot for the Lions but could not cope with Dave Kregel and lost, 6-0, 6-2. Don McCartney lost his match with Mike Fiske by an identical score.

John Krall was a surprise starter for the Lions in the sixth spot but the State College ace could not cope with the serves of John Brandeis and lost 6-2, 6-0.

In the doubles the Lions managed to take one of the three matches when Carp teamed up with Blanck to whip Rockafellow and Rankin in straight sets, 8-6, 11-9.

Baker and Moore then lost in straight sets to Doo and Kregel 6-3, 6-3. Vance Rae and McCartney gave Colgate's Fiske and Brandeis a good battle before bowing 6-3, 4-6, 6-3 in the final match.

Summary
Baker (PS) beat Doo (C), 3-6, 6-3, 6-1
Rankin (C) beat Carp (PS), 2-6, 6-0, 6-3
Rockafellow (C) beat Carp (PS), 6-3, 6-3
Kregel (C) beat Monte (PS), 6-0, 6-2
Fiske (C) beat McCartney (PS), 6-0, 6-2
Brandeis (C) beat Krall (PS), 6-2, 6-0

Doubles
Carp and Blank (PS) beat Rockafellow and Rankin (C), 8-6, 11-9
Doo and Kregel (C) beat Moore and Baker (PS), 6-3, 6-5
Fiske and Brandeis (C) beat Rae and McCartney (PS), 6-3, 4-6, 6-2 year. Seniors Scott Hildum and Dave Griffiths along with goalie standout Dave Fetter give Swarthmore another tough defense.

Last year defense played the major role when the two teams met. Penn State held Swarthmore to a 4-4 tie, the only black mark on the Garnet's Penn-Del record. Maisel was the big scorer for Swarthmore getting two scores and he will be back again this year, hoping to duplicate his performance.

Penn State plans no lineup changes but Baer did say that Dick Swenson might possibly break into the midfield and Jim Irwin has won the starting spot at goalie. Irwin has been switching on and off with John Castella.

Seckler, Oberly Will Captain Wrestling Team

Jerry Seckler and Johnston Oberly have been elected co-captains of the Penn State wrestling team for the 1960-61 season.

Both wrestlers compiled identical 9-0-1 records for the season. Seckler grappled in the 157 and 167-pound classes and Oberly in the heavyweight division.

Seckler placed second in the 167-pound class at the Easterns while Oberly pinned his men to win the heavyweight division and secured a tie for the Lions in the tournament. He went on to win the consolation championship in the Nationals.

Oberly also won the Most Outstanding Westler award while Seckler won the William E. "Doc" Lewis award for spirit, loyalty and courage.

In other presentations, Phil Myer received the Kaye Vinson Award for the most improved wrestler and Sam Minor was given the Penn State Wrestling Club Trophy for the best three-year record.

Harvard Crews Favored to Win Eastern Titles

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP)—Harvard's all-winning heavyweight and lightweight crews are favored to retain their titles in today's Eastern Sprint Regatta on Lake Quinsigamond.

This is the first time in the 15 years of the Eastern Assn. of Rowing Colleges' spring championships that the big boys and the 155-pounders have run off their May meet in the same place on the same day. With 63 eight-oared crews entered, it adds up to the greatest one-day college rowing spectacle ever.

It should be a big day for the Harvard Crimson. The heavyweights, already rated the crew to beat for the Olympic berth, have won three races this year and 13 over a two-year span. The 1960 lightweights have swept four straight to run their string to 24 over a three-year period.

Navy and Pennsylvania, the only other unbeaten in the East, are expected to give Harvard its stiffest opposition over the Olympic distance of 2,000 meters.

There are 13 colleges entered in the heavyweight race and nine in the lightweight competition. In addition there will be championship contests for the freshman and junior varsity crews in both classes.

Phillies Get Taylor, Neeman in Trade

CHICAGO (AP) — The last-place Chicago Cubs traded Tony Taylor and Cal Neeman to the Philadelphia Phils for Don Cardwell and Ed Bouchee yesterday as new Cub Manager Lou Boudreau almost entirely revamped his infield.

The struggling Cubs got what they needed desperately in righthander Cardwell, a first-line pitcher. The Phils, in turn, got a good second sacker in Taylor and a potential regular catcher in Neeman.

Bouchee, a .280 hitter, takes over first base in a Cub infield which Boudreau just about turned inside out.

Only shortstop Ernie Banks, the National League's most valuable player for two successive years, remains in the infield Boudreau inherited from Charley Grimm 10 days ago.

Replacing Taylor at second base will be rookie Jerry Kindall, recalled from Houston Thursday. At third, Frank Thomas—erstwhile first sacker and outfielder—supplants the benched Don Zimmer.

Cardwell, 24, is 1-2 this season and last year was 9-10 for the last-finishing Phils. "He's still a youngster with a great future," said Boudreau. "Naturally, he'll be a starter for us."

Bouchee, 27, has a four-season major league average of .281 and now is batting .274.

Taylor, 24, a native of Cuba, had been a Cub regular since 1958. He is hitting .260.

"It was difficult to give up Tony," said Boudreau. "He is a good second baseman, has speed and can hit. But we had to give up something good to get a first baseman and a starting pitcher."

Neeman, 31, had been with the Cubs since he was drafted from the New York Yankee organization late in 1956. His three-season average with the Cubs, prior to this season, was .244. However, this season, he ranked behind Del Rice and Sammy Taylor.

This was the year's second Cub-Phil deal. In January, the Cubs got Richie Ashburn from the Phils for Al Dark, John Buzhardt and Jim Woods.

Olympic Lions

Five Penn State track aces were members of various U.S. Olympic teams. They were Horace and Bill Ashenfelter, Barney Ewell, Curt Stone, and Herm Goffberg. Ed Moran, a '59 graduate student, is the latest Lion hopeful.

Banks, Thomas Power Chicago To 4-1 Victory

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs defied the Friday, the 13th jinx, and won their first game under new Manager Lou Boudreau, defeating the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-1, behind Glen Hobbie's five hit pitching.

It was St. Louis' 11th straight loss away from home.

Frank Thomas and Ernie Banks highspotted the Chicago offense with their sixth home runs, solo swats off loser Ron Kline. The win gave Hobbie a 3-3 record.

Banks' homer was his first in Wrigley Field this season. The Chicago shortstop now has hit a home run in every park he has played in this spring and season outside of Salt Lake City. It also was Banks' fourth homer off St. Louis in the five games this year.
