

Baseballers End Home Season Against Tourney Hungry Owls

A year ago Temple was in position to spoil Penn State's District II playoff hopes, but this year things are reversed.

The Owls (15-5) come into today's Beaver Field finale (3:30) with a fair chance of landing a berth in the post-season tournament and a Penn State win could knock them out of the running.

On the other hand, a Lion win would boost State right back into contention and make the weekend doubleheader at Pitt all-important.

State, 9-6 on the campaign, won District honors last year but they've been having their troubles this season and time is running out.

The District selection committee will meet in Scranton Monday to pick four teams that will battle for a trip to Omaha and the College World Series.

Penn State coach Joe Bedenk will go with sophomore Dave Bergey today against the powerful Owls.

Bergey is 1-0 on the year and has given up just one unearned run in 14 2/3 innings. He pitched a 6-0 shutout at Lehigh last Wednesday for his lone win. Harry Beans (.299), one of the

HARRY BEANS ... behind the plate today

Lions' best clutch hitters, will handle Bergey who has looked exceptionally impressive this year. Bill Benton (.270) will be at the gateway and Larry Fegley (.434) and Bob Hrobak (.136) will be the double play combo with captain Dick Landis (.117) on third. In the only outfield change, Larry Beighey, a .352 hitter, will go to center and he'll be flanked by Jim Suplizio (.306) in left and Zeke DeLong (.254) in right.

For Temple, either Don Flynn (7-2) or Jim Craig (5-2) will get the starting nod with basketball star John Koskinen handling the receiving.

Another Owl basketballer, All-American Bill Kennedy, will be the centerfielder. Kennedy is Temple's top RBI man and is hitting .310.

Drafted by the Philadelphia Warriors, Kennedy is still not sure whether he'll make a career of baseball or basketball. Several big league baseball teams have shown interest in his talents.

Today's game will be the last home affair for eight Lion seniors. In addition to Fegley, Landis, Benton, Beans, Beighey and Suplizio who will be starting, reserve catcher John Adams and pitcher Bob Arner will be calling it a career.

Dodgers Release Furillo; Outfielder Refuses Minors

LOS ANGELES (AP) — One of baseball's longest and brightest associations came to an end yesterday when the Dodgers gave Carl Furillo his unconditional release.

It ended not on the usual hearts-and-flowers theme but in bitterness and counter-accusations.

E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi, the Dodgers' vice president and general manager, announced that the 38-year-old onetime hero of Flatbush had reached the end of the line with the Dodgers.

"Furillo has been given his unconditional release," said Bavasi. "I've been betrayed. They just didn't have to do it this way," said a bitter Furillo.

A badly pulled muscle in the right calf kept Furillo on his bench most of this season and led to yesterday's climax.

Bavasi said Furillo had been asked on the big outfielder. But no club in either the National or American League wanted him. Apparently they shied away from the man with the ailing leg and his salary of $30,000 or more per year.

Bavasi said Furillo had been offered a place with the Dodgers' Spokane club in the Pacific Coast League, where his salary would have remained intact.

But, said Bavasi, the old pro rejected the offer. In a prepared statement, the vice president said Furillo had to go to make way for younger talent.

"It was felt we should go with younger men and give them every possible opportunity to gain the experience which will make them Dodgers of the future," said Bavasi.

Bavasi hit the ceiling when he read some of Carl's caustic comments regarding the manner in which Bavasi acted leading up to yesterday's action.

"The players," declared Bavasi, "told me he would create a stink when he went out — and they were right."

"A week ago Furillo called me and said, 'I can't get out of bed. I can't help this club any more.'"

"I tried to get him on the disabled list but the commissioner (Ford Frick) wouldn't go for it. I had no alternative but to release him. I called Carl on the way to San Francisco last week and told him I would find him a good job in the organization."

"But that doesn't go any more, after what he has done to this club."

Furillo has branded as "lousy" the way he had been treated in the past few days. He said he had expected to make the present road trip and even play in the San Francisco Giant series last weekend.

This was Furillo's 15th year with the Dodgers in a span that bridged service in seven World Series dating back to 1947.

Pat Stewart Wins

PARIS (AP) — Pat Stewart of Indianapolis defeated Solange Geltier of France 6-0, 7-5 in the opening first round women's singles match of the French International Tennis Tournament yesterday.

Many of the first round matches went by default as competitors failed to show up at the red clay courts of Roland Garros Stadium.

Lions Face National LaX Champs Today

By DEAN BILLYCK

If the Penn State lacrosse team thinks things are looking bad, they better not open their eyes today.

Riding the crest of a seven game losing streak, Coach Earnie Baer's boys face national power Maryland this afternoon at College Park.

Lacrosse at Maryland is not a minor sport and draws crowds of 10,000-15,000. The College Park-Baltimore area is the hotbed of lacrosse and because of this Maryland manages to draw some of the best players in the country.

Lion coach Earnie Baer put it very bluntly when he said, "We are way out of our class. If we would win we would just quit and call the season a success."

Maryland has won the national championship three of the last five years and Terp players have dominated past All-American teams. Last season, against one of the best Lion teams in years, the Terps smashed State to the merry tune of 20-1. Maryland holds a 21-2 series record over the Lions and Penn State hasn't come close to winning in recent years.

Heading the Terp lineup is All-American defenseman Bob Schwartzberg. As a junior last year, Schwartzberg was considered the top defensive player in the country.

Another All-American, Roger Cross, is the top scoring threat for Maryland. He led the Terps in scoring last year with 37 goals and 37 assists and against State he fired in five goals.

Baer is not planning any lineup changes for the Lions. "We will just have to go with our best," he said, "and hope for the best."

Gordon Bennett, Dick Hammond, and Jim Kane will be the Lion starters at attack.

The defense which will be facing its stiffest tussel of the year will be manned by Andy Lockhart, Andy Moconyi and Tom Greenlee.

Starting at midfield will be Lou Meier, Hank Schilling and Dick Bullock. The only possible change in the lineup is in the goal where an ankle injury may sideline Jim Irwin. John Castella will take over if Irwin is unable to play.
