Linksmen Lose 4th As Cornell Wins, 4-3

Special to The Collegian

ITHACA, N.Y., May 18—An underdog Cornell golf team scored a 4-3 upset win over Penn State here today. The Nittanyans were favored off their third place finish in the EIGA tourney. Cornell took tenth.

The Lions went into the meet without number two man

Bob Devine. Devine missed the trip because of classes and his absence hurt as the Big Red swept the first three matches, lost the next three, and won the seventh and deciding encounter.

Coach Joe Boyle moved everyone up a notch in the lineup and inserted sophomore Bob Swahn in the seventh spot.

George Bickley upset Lion captain Dick Burgoon in the first match, 3 and 1, to spark the Big Red win. It was only the second dual-meet setback for Burgoon all season.

Roy Altman, moved up from his customary third spot, lost a tough match to Cornell's Dave Goles, 4 and 3. Goles shot a two over par 74 for the win.

Bob Wagner followed suit for the Big Red and beat senior letterman Ed Kormos, 3 and 2.

The Lion linksmen finally came through with a win in the fourth match, but it took a great effort by junior John Morton. Morton beat sophomore Barry Warner, 4 and 2, and was medalist for the meet with a sizzling 72.

Haydn Thomas also had a good day, beating Doug Haymann, 4-2.

Bob Rutherford evened the meet up with his victory over John Tarter, 4-2. The match was close for the front nine but the Nittany junior polished off his foe early on the back nine.

Cornell's Rich Weyand was pitted against Swahn in the deciding seventh match and the Big Red veteran completely dominated the inexperienced sophomore to win the match and meet, 6 and 5.

Summary
Bickley (C) beat Burgoon (PS), 3-1
Goles (C) beat Altman (PS), 4-3
Wagner (C) beat Kormos (PS), 3-2
Morton (PS) beat Warner (C), 4-2
Thomas (PS) beat Haymann (C), 4-2
Rutherford (PS) beat Tarter (C), 4-2
Weyand (C) beat Swahn (PS), 6-5

Two Last Inning Errors Help Owls Beat Lion Baseballers, 3-1

By SANDY PADWE

Penn State made all the tough plays yesterday, but two easy ones cost them dearly as Temple took advantage of twin ninth inning errors by Ed Kikla for a 3-1 win at Beaver Field.

The win put the Owls (16-5) in good position to grab one of the District II playoff berths while Joe Bedenk's defending champs (9-7) are just about out of the running.

The district selection committee will meet Monday to choose the four teams who will compete for a berth in the College World Series.

For eight innings yesterday State looked like the team that finished fourth in last year's series, but the Lions fell apart in the final stanza to ruin what had been their best showing of the season.

Dave Bergey, who now has gone 22 1/3 innings without giving up an earned run, was touched for the loss to even his record at 1-1.

The sophomore righthander was in and out of trouble all afternoon, but three sensational relay plays held the score to 1-1 going into the ninth.

Zeke DeLong turned in the first dazzler in the third inning when he fielded Nick Stampone's single in deep right and fired on a line to third where Dick Landis put the tag on the sliding Bill Kennedy.

DeLong figured in the next one in the sixth when Temple pushed across its first run. Owl shortstop Tom Donahue was on first when Herby Gordon lashed a one-bounce single to center.

Donahue scored as Larry Beighey misplac'd the ball which went all the way to the wall. Gordon, a streak on the basepaths, never stopped running and headed for home as DeLong relayed the ball to shortstop Bob Hrobak who threw a perfect strike to catcher Harry Beans for the out.

Then in the eighth, with Donahue again on first, Stampone smashed a double to center. Beighey fielded the ball on the run, threw to Hrobak and he fired another strike to nail Donahue at home.

State recorded its only run in the seventh when Jim Suplizio doubled off the wall in left, took third on a passed ball, and scored on Bean's perfectly placed squeeze bunt down the first base line.

So the score was tied going into the ninth and Bergey was tiring rapidly.

After Gordon led off with his third hit, Bedenk decided to lift Bergey in favor of Kikla, who struck out the side in the final inning against Bucknell last week.

Kikla walked Al Merando and then Walt Chyzowich laid down a bunt that looked like a sure force play at third. But Kikla bobbled it and threw wildly to first, allowing Gordon to score.

The Lion southpaw got John Koskinen on strikes and Flynn laid down another bunt. Again Kikla threw wildly to first, pulling Bill Benton off the bag as Merando scored.

Ironically enough he struck out the next two batters but the damage was done.

Flynn then disposed of the Lions in order in the bottom of the ninth to record his eighth win against two defeats.
