

Spikers Seek 2nd Win In Clash With Jaspers

By JIM KARL

The Penn State thincads will be seeking their second straight dual meet victory today when they clash with arch rival Manhattan in New York.

The Lions have a 1-2 log this year with a win over Pitt last week and losses to Navy and the Quantico Marines.

The Jaspers and State have hooked up in some memorable duals in recent years, with Penn State's indoor IC4A victory last year ranking as the most dramatic.

Manhattan originally had won the team title by 19/36 of a point as the result of a reversed judge's decision which elevated Manhattan hurdler Henry White from fourth place to third. The extra point was the margin of victory for the Jaspers.

Penn State Athletic Director Ernest B. McCoy protested the reversal and 11 days later a special session of the IC4A executive committee ruled that the reversal would not be recognized, giving Penn State the championship.

When the Jaspers invaded Beaver Field during the outdoor season for a "grudge" match with the Lions, they were soundly trounced, 99-41.

This year both teams are rated even and the final decision could go either way.

The Lions' top guns will be miler Dick Engelbrink, sprinter Bobby Brown, weightmen Jon Musser and Jim Schwab, hurdler Bob Szezyller and high jumper Dick Campbell.

If Dick Hambricht is fully recovered from an ankle injury he suffered last week, the Lions will be stronger in both the 440 and the mile relay, which Hambricht is slated to anchor.

The State line-up shows Engelbrink, Steve Moorhead, and Mike Miller in the mile.

Engelbrink looked impressive in his last two outings, beating Quantico's Pete Close and Pitt's Ron Rush. If he continues to improve he should have no trouble beating Manhattan's John Horton, who ran a 4:24.7 last week against Quantico.

Going for State in the 440 will be Hambricht, Don Davies, and Szezyller. Manhattan is well fortified in this event with Art Evans, Ronald Colino and Kye Courtney.

Both the 100 and 220 will be handled by Brown, George Metzgar and either Pat Cunningham, who is nursing a sore thigh, or Jim O'Connor.

Brown will be after his third straight double but Manhattan sophomore John Fernandez will be a challenge to him in both events.

White will give State's John Famera plenty of competition in the 120 high hurdles while Szezyller and White are the top two contenders in the 220 low hurdles.

Lion Netters Host Cadets In Finale

By JOHN MORRIS

The Penn State tennis team will wind up the 1960 season this afternoon at 2 on the Nittany courts against a power-packed Army team.

The Cadets have lost only one man from a squad that defeated the Lions at West Point last year, 7 1/2-1 1/2.

Army coach Leif Nordlie has number one man Hank Fisher back from last year, but Fisher has been replaced in that spot by sensational sophomore Jim Peterson.

Peterson and State's own sophomore star Jim Baker will meet in the first match today and it should be a good one because Baker will be out to avenge a 8-4, 6-3 loss to Peterson as a freshman last year.

Behind Peterson, Nordlie can call on a flock of fine sophomores, but Fisher will probably get the nod to face Nittany captain Jerry Carp. Fisher dropped Dick Ludwig 6-3, 6-2 last year while Carp was losing to Don Hubbard, another returning letterman.

Ludwig will be the third man in coach Sherm Fogg's starting lineup.

Other probable starters for the Cadets are Hubbard, Russ Zelzer, Bob Chelberg and star basketball Lee Sager.

Fogg has decided to go with his veterans in an effort to offset the Cadets' experience. Junior Johnny Blanck will be back in his familiar number slot today. He was number three man in the Lions' win over West Virginia Tuesday.

Don McCartney and John Krall will play in the last two spots for the Nittany netters. McCartney has been "hot and cold" all year while Krall has just recently recovered from an elbow injury which sidelined him for three weeks.

Lion '9' Can Clinch Winning Log at Pitt

Wednesday Penn State was worrying about the District II playoffs but today the only thing that matters is splitting a twinbill at Pitt to insure a winning season.

A 3-1 loss to Temple Wednesday ruined State's chances to defend its district title and dropped the Lions' record to 9-7.

So a split today is all-important with only one game (Delaware) left on the schedule.

Like State, Pitt was an unbeatable on paper at the start of the season, but apparently that failed to awe Panther opponents and Bobby Lewis' boys come into today's doubleheader with a 4-12 record.

Included in the Panthers' 12 losses are 1-run decisions to Ohio State, West Virginia, Duquesne and Juniata. Their wins were over Navy, Georgetown, Bucknell and Slippery Rock.

Lion coach Joe Bedenk plans to go with Marlin Beisecker in the first game and either Dave Bergey or Tom Durbin in the nightcap.

Beisecker, a sophomore right-hander, has a 3-1 record with wins over Bucknell, Georgetown, and Ithaca. His only loss was to Lafayette.

Durbin, from Sharon, Pa., has a 3-0 mark, while Bergey is 1-1 but has yet to give up an earned run in 22 1/2 innings.

For Pitt it will be Dick Wirth (1-3) in the first game, but Lewis is undecided about the second tilt.

Bedenk plans to use a lot of sophomores during today's action, but he said he will stick to his basic starting lineup.

That will find Bill Benton (.243) at first, Larry Fegley (.403) on second with Bob Hrobak (.129)

BOB SZEZYLLER

Runners the half mile for State will be Bill Schwab, George Jones and Miller. Evans and Courtney are Manhattan's top prospects.

Herm Weber, winner in the Pitt meet last week, Engelbrink and Moorhead will head the Lions' 2-mile corps. In the relay it will be Metzgar, Szezyller, Davies and Hambricht.
