

Lions Face Colgate In Final LaX Game

By DEAN BILLYCK

The Penn State lacrosse team gets its last chance to snap its long losing streak when the Lions close out the season against Colgate today at 2 on Beaver Field.

The Lions, who have looked good in their last two outings against Swarthmore and Maryland, are fighting an eight game losing streak and today's game against the Red Raiders figures to be a close struggle.

Both Colgate and State have lost to Lehigh, Cornell, Rutgers and Hobart but the Red Raiders have beaten Syracuse while the Lions lost, 16-5.

Colgate and Penn State did not meet last year but in the season's series the Lions hold an 11-3 edge.

Coach Harvey Potter has 12 lettermen back from last year's 8-5 club. The attack has been the Red Raider strong point this year with letterman Curt Brockelman, Vic Cino and John Page giving Colgate a fine scoring trio.

Jim McComish, Frank Rowan and Mike Norton hold down the defense while Don Farrell, Ed Hauser and Don Gates are the top midfielders. Two-year letterman Jim Tevebaugh will be in the nets.

Lion coach Earnie Baer will stick with essentially the same line-up that he has used all year. State's big scorer, Gordon Bennett, will be at attack along with Jim Kane and Dick Hammond.

Kane

Kane was honorable mention All-American last year but has been hampered this year by a knee injury and has not scored effectively. Hammond is fighting with midfielder Dick Bullock for runner-up honors in scoring.

Along with captain Bullock, Lou Meier and Dick Swenson will be the starting midfielders.

The Lions' defensive corps will be composed of Andy Lockhart, Dave Erwin and Andy Moconyi. Against Maryland this week the defense played an outstanding game, holding the Terps in check for three periods.

Moconyi was especially good. The big Lion defenseman was so rugged that Maryland coach Jack Faber called him the most outstanding defensive player he had seen this year.

Either senior John Castella or sophomore Jim Irwin will be in the nets for State. Baer said that he will make up his mind on the starter at game time.

Six Colts Will Run In Preakness

BALTIMORE (AP) — Half a dozen colts, the smallest field since 1950 are entered for today's 84th Preakness—the world's richest race for 3-year-old thoroughbreds.

Included in the lineup are the 1-2-3 finishers in the $158,950 Kentucky Derby two weeks ago—Isaac Blumberg's Venetian Way, Turfland Inc.'s Bally Ache, and the Canadian star E. P. Taylor's Victoria Park.

Venetian Way remained the even money favorite to win the $150,000-added classic over the mile and three-sixteenths distance.

A late development during the day was the selection of a jockey for Victoria Park.

Manuel Ycaza rode the colt in the derby, but was committed to ride elsewhere Saturday. The job finally was given 26-year-old Tony DeSpirito, the Lawrence, Mass. booter.

Bally Ache, the speed demon who blistered the early derby pace only to be caught on the final turn and passed by Venetian Way, is the 8-5 second choice.

Big Ten Votes for Rose Bowl

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — were Michigan, Iowa, Purdue and The Big Ten voted yesterday to Michigan State.

The opposition came from members who last March brought abolishment of the Rose Bowl on a contractual level. They are Ohio State, Wisconsin, Northwestern, Minnesota and Illinois.

The vote yesterday followed acceptance of a recommendation that Rose Bowl representation on an individual basis would be a share-the-wealth proposition.

Twelve shares of the Rose Bowl receipts would be divided, the participating school to receive two, each other Big Ten member one, and the commissioner's office one.

In the past such receipts amounted to close to $300,000 a year.

The swing vote that retained it was by Indiana. Others for it
