

—Collegian Photo by Rick Bower

PENN STATE'S GORDON BENNETT (48) beats Colgate goalie Jim Tevabaugh to the draw and flips in a goal in the third quarter at Beaver Field Saturday. Colgate came back to beat the Lions, 9-7, in the final lacrosse game of the year.

Colgate Hands Stickmen Ninth Straight Loss, 9-7

By DEAN BILLYCK

The Penn State lacrosse team closed out its 1960 season Saturday with a heartbreaking 9-7 loss to Colgate on Beaver Field. The Lions were never behind until Colgate broke a 6-6 tie in the final period and hung on for the win. The game was a see-saw affair throughout and the score was knotted five different times. It was State's ninth loss in a row and the Lions wound up the campaign with a 1-9 record. Their lone win was an 8-3 victory over Loyola in the opener. Dave Bullock with three goals and Jim Kane with two led the Nittany assault. Kane opened the State scoring with a goal at 3:33 of the first period on a fast break play. After Curt Brockelman had given Colgate a 2-1 lead, Kane came back and evened the score at 8:38 of the second period. The Lion midfielder scooped up a blocked shot and quickly fired it into the corner of the goal. Dick Hammond then gave the Lions a 3-2 lead at 11:35 on the prettiest play of the game. The senior attackman circled behind the net and flipped in a backhand shot that caught the Colgate goalie completely by surprise. Twenty-two seconds later Bullock gave the Lions a 4-2 lead when he bounced a 20-footer into the right-hand corner. Colgate came right back to tie the score at four in the final three minutes of the second period with Ralph Quatrano and Jim Washburn getting the Red Raider goals. The second half was played in a downpour but it didn't hurt the scoring. Bullock again put State in the lead at 1:36 of the third period only to have Al Wilkerson tie the score three minutes later with a blazing shot into the State goal. Once again State jumped into the lead when Jim McComish slipped in the mud while covering Gordon Bennett and the Lions' sophomore star took advantage and scored at 5:51. But this was State's last lead. Wilkerson bounced in a goal to tie the score and Brockelman put Colgate ahead for the first time with a score in the opening minutes of the last quarter. A few seconds later he added another goal to move Colgate to an 8-6 lead. Bullock got his third goal at 8:15 to tighten the gap but Washburn sewed it up for the Red Raiders at 9:20 for a final 9-7 bulge. Dave Erwin was elected captain of the 1961 lacrosse team last night at the team's annual awards dinner. This year's captain Dick Bullock won the annual George Pittenger award. Pittenger was a former Penn State lacrosse player who was killed in World War II and his teammates instituted a fund to give an annual award in his memory.

Run in Ninth Helps Yankees Beat 'Cousins'

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Elston Howard's critical fly deep to right drew in Gil McDougal and with the winning run in the ninth inning yesterday as the New York Yankees defeated the Kansas City Athletics 4-2. It was the fourth consecutive win over the A's for the Yankees, all out of 2-3's. With one out, losing pitcher Tony Herbert (2-2) had walked McDougal and Bobby Richardson and then advanced the runners with a wild pitch. Howard batted for John Goble, the second of three Yankee relief pitchers.

NEW YORK		KANSAS CITY
AB	R	AB	R
K. F. Lee	5	0	2
C. G. B. G.	1	0	0
L. J. M.	1	0	1
F. J. S.	4	0	0
S. J. W.	4	0	0
M. J. G.	4	0	1
N. D. P.	2	1	0
E. J. S.	2	1	0
F. J. P.	2	1	0
M. J. P.	0	0	0
F. J. P.	1	0	0
G. J. P.	0	0	0
L. H. P.	0	0	0
D. J. P.	0	0	0
Totals	32	4	7

Bush-Blair Win Crown 'n IM Horseshoes Tourney

Jim Bush and Gary Blair of Triangle are the 1960 IM fraternity horseshoe champions. Bush and Blair had to scramble to recover from a 10-21 first game setback against Acacia's Dave Juers and Gene Wapner, but they came back strong to take the next two games, 21-11, 21-19.

SENIOR TODAY, YOUNG EXECUTIVE TOMORROW

Your clothing will be an important asset in your business career. The casual distinction of Jack Harper clothes makes sense to the discerning few who set the style. Nothing succeeds like success . . . be sure you have the right start.

Visit our second floor . . . step up to an Atherton suit.

Jack Harper
Custom Shop for Men

Around the corner from Bostonian Ltd.
W. College Ave., State College

PIAA Track, Golf

Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association championships in track, golf, and tennis will be held here Friday and Saturday. The PIAA tennis and golf tournaments will get underway Friday, with the track and field championships slated for Saturday on Penn State's old Beaver Field.

Grapplers Schedule 10

Ten wrestling matches are scheduled for Penn State's 1960-61 team. The Nittany Lions will open against Army in the first of five home matches. West Virginia, Lehigh, Maryland, and Rutgers also will appear at University Park. The 1960-61 schedule: Dec. 3, Army; 10, West Virginia; 16, at Michigan; Jan. 7, Lehigh; 14, at Cornell; Feb. 4, Maryland; 11, at Navy; 18, at Syracuse; 25, at Pittsburgh; March 4, Rutgers; 9-11 Eastern Intercollegiate at Lehigh.

Brother Act

Penn State's wrestling squad has a talented brother act in Henry and John Barone of State College. Their dad is a mathematics professor on the University faculty.

TIRED ???
Let Collegian Classifieds WORK FOR YOU

TILL WE MEET AGAIN

Today I conclude my sixth year of writing columns for the makers of Marlboro and Philip Morris cigarettes. It has been my custom during these six years to make no attempt to be funny in this final column. (I have achieved this objective many times during the year also, but never on purpose.) The reasons for the lack of levity in this final column are two: first, you are preparing for final exams and, short of holding you down and tickling you, there is no way in the world to make you laugh at this time; and, second, for many of us this is a leave-taking, and leave-takings, I think, ought not be flippant. If I have brought you a moment or two of cheer during the past year, I am rewarded. If I have persuaded you to try Marlboro or Philip Morris cigarettes, you are rewarded.

Let me pause here to express my heartfelt gratitude to the makers of Marlboro and Philip Morris. They have given me complete freedom in the writing of these columns. There has not been the slightest hint of censorship. They have never changed so much as one comma in my copy. I wish to take this occasion to state publicly that I am forever grateful to these enlightened tobaccoists and I hereby serve notice that if they find it in their corporate heart to engage me for another year of columning, I shall require a substantial increase in salary. The money is not what matters—not as money, that is, but only as a token. I want to be assured that they love me as much as I love Marlboro and Philip Morris. And what, indeed, is not to love? Marlboro is a cigarette which proves beyond cavil that flavor did not go out when filters came in. Philip Morris is a cigarette that is pure mildness from lip-end to tip-end. Both of these estimable smokes come in soft-pack or flip-top box. Neither is ever sold in bulk.

The summer lies ahead. For underclassmen summer will be a hiatus, a breather in which to restore yourselves for next year's resumption of busy college life. For seniors there will be no more college. You must not, however, despair and abandon yourself to idleness. There are other things to do in the world besides going to school—basket weaving, for example, or building boats in bottles, or picking up tinfoil, or reading "War and Peace." Many graduates fall into the erroneous belief that their lives are over when they leave college. This is not so. It is possible to make some sort of life for yourself with a bit of ingenuity . . . or, if that fails, dye your hair, change your name, and enroll at some other college. Whatever the future holds for you, be assured that the makers of Marlboro and Philip Morris join me in wishing you the best of everything. We have taken great pleasure—the makers and I—in bringing you this column each week throughout the school year. We hope a little pleasure has accrued to you too. May good fortune attend your ventures. Stay happy. Stay healthy. Stay loose.

We, the makers of Marlboro and Philip Morris, can only echo kindly old Max's parting words. Stay happy. Stay healthy. Stay loose.