

Final Game Cancelled; Nittanies Finish With 9-9 Top IC4A Threats

It's official now. Penn State's baseball season is over and the final game scheduled at Delaware tomorrow has been cancelled.

Ed Czihak, Business Manager of Athletics, confirmed reports that the game had been cancelled because Delaware had accepted a bid to play in the District II playoffs.

The playoffs will begin Friday in Cooperstown, N.Y., and Delaware needed Thursday as a travel date, so Penn State athletic officials got together with Delaware's Athletic Director Dave Nelson and they agreed to the cancellation.

The Blue Hens will meet Colgate in the opening round at Cooperstown while Villanova will meet St. Johns in the other game.

The winner of the two-day tournament then goes to Omaha, Neb., for the College World Series.

Due to the cancellation, State finished the year with a sub par 9-9 record.

The Penn State story (errors and lack of clutch hitting) is well known now, and Lion coach Joe Bedenk and the whole squad already are looking forward to next year when they hope to make up for their poor performance.

The district champs in 1959, State never really got started this year despite having nearly the same team back that finished fourth in the 1959 College World Series.

The 9-9 record marked the first time in 25 years that the Lions haven't posted a winning season and it was the first time since 1903 that they had a .500 record.

This also is the first year since 1955 that Bedenk's boys will not participate in the district playoffs. The Lions have been in the districts eight times in the last 11 seasons, and in 1952, 1957 and

Joe Bedenk ... It's all over now

1959 they won the district title.

Both Colgate and Villanova beat the Lions during the season. The Wildcats, who finished with a 14-4 record, handed the Lions their first loss early in April, 9-6.

Then a few days later Colgate, stunned the Nittanies at Beaver Field with a 4-3 win in 12 innings.

A lot of college fans can't figure out why Temple didn't get a berth in the tournament. The Owls finished with a 17-5 record, considerably better than Delaware's 12-6 and Colgate's 13-6.

State will lose quite a few starters through graduation and they'll lose some of their top reserves too.

Scheduled to graduate are catcher Harry Beans, captain Dick Landis, infielder-outfielder Larry Beighey, outfielder Jim Suplizio, pitcher Bob Arner, catcher John Adams, first baseman Bill Benton, and leading batter Larry Fegley, a district all-star choice.

Captain Dick Engelbrink and sprinter Bobby Brown will head a strong Penn State aggregation Friday and Saturday in the IC4A championships at Villanova.

The Lions will be defending the title they won last year when Ed Moran led them to a crushing victory over the elite of Eastern track schools.

The teams which pose the biggest threat to State this year are Villanova, Manhattan, Yale, and Maryland. Yale and Villanova are picked by most of the experts to fight it out for top honors with Penn State and Maryland battling for third place.

Manhattan, on the basis of a 53-78 loss to Penn State last week, is rated below the Lions and the Terps.

Engelbrink ranks as one of the top contenders for mile honors. Although the blond distance specialist has not reached the form he displayed last year, his 4:12 mile on a slow track against Quantico was one of the top efforts in the East this year. Engelbrink will also double in the half mile.

Brown has improved so much over last year that Lion Coach Chick Werner nominated him as the man to beat in both the 100 and 200. The junior from Philadelphia won the IC4A 100 title last year by nipping Villanova's Ed Collymore in 9.9. Collymore came back to win the 220, with Brown placing third.

Brown said that he had some difficulty with the 220 last year, and often tired over the last 20 yards. But the Lion dashman doesn't seem to be having any trouble this year. In fact, Pitt's star sprinter Mel Barnwell, who lost to Brown in the 220, remarked that "Brown is much stronger than he was last year."

Brown has won both the 100 and 220 twice this year in dual meets. Against Quantico he nipped ex-Southern Conference Champ Walt Fillman in the 100, and then ran a 21.9 to down Collymore.

A week later he beat Pitt sprinter Jim Donahue in the 100, and then shaded Barnwell in the 220. His time of 20.8 was well below the Olympic qualifying standard of 21.4.

His top competition in the IC4A 100 may come from Villanova's Frank Budd. Budd beat Brown for the 60-yard dash title in the indoor IC4A's in March.

High jumper Dick Campbell is almost a sure point getter for

JON MUSSER

Werner and teammate John Farierra is not far behind. Farierra cleared 6-5 against Manhattan last week to cause a three-way tie for first place. It was the highest the Lion senior had ever jumped.

Jim Schwab and Jon Musser are also potential point getters for Penn State. Although Schwab has not approached his 223-11 1/2 effort that set a Penn State javelin record last year, he has been consistently around 210. Musser threw the javelin 160 against Quantico, a personal high for him.

Kamis, Greenberg Win IM Tennis

Phi Epsilon Pi's Al Kamis and Gene Greenberg won the IM tennis finals for the second straight year by downing Alpha Chi Rho's Bill Stout and Ron Kinch yesterday, 6-4, 6-2.

With a strong wind at his back, Kamis' hard services were too much for Stout and Kinch to handle. Over a 2-set period, Kamis didn't miss on his service.

6 American Golfers Remain In British Amateur Tourney

PORTRUSH, Northern Ireland (AP)—Determined British and Irish stars yesterday whittled down the American challenge for the British Amateur Golf Championship to a mere six survivors. Nine Americans were eliminated.

But Uncle Sam's two big ones—stylish Tim Holland of Rockville Centre, N.Y., and veteran Bob Cochran of St. Louis—did more than stay alive. They played brilliantly, shattering par in their second round triumphs. This kind of form—if maintained—could earn either the ancient title.

Holland, 29, routed T.B.C. Hoey of Ireland, 7 and 6. Cochran, 47, a long time Midwestern star, edged John Lyons of England, 3 and 1 in a stirring match. Cochran closed it out with birdies on the 16th and 17th holes. Both Holland and Cochran scored front nine 33s on the par 36-36-72, 6,842-yards layout.

The other American winners were Bill Gibson of Louisville, Ky., by 8 and 7 over L. G. Emmott of England; Donald Dawson of Detroit, by 1-up over Bryan Blaike of Ireland, and Ralph Morrow of Oklahoma City by 5 and 3 over Dr. William Meharg of Ireland. Hiram Snowden of Savannah, Ga., gained the third round on two straight scratches.

Seven of the eight seeded aces, headed by former champion Joe Carr of Dublin, advanced. The one exception came in an all-Irish match when Bert Rainey, a husky lad, upset 50-year-old Cecil Ewing, 4 and 3.

The other seeded victors included Tom Craddock, the Irish champion who eliminated John Humm of Baldwin, N.Y., 4 and 3; Jimmy Walker of Scotland, who fired a first nine 32 in beating D. R. Young of Ireland, 7 and 6; Michael Bonallack of England; Guy Wolstenholme of England; Reid Jack of Scotland, the 1957 winner, and David Blair, another Scot, Blair routed Lt. J. J. Hagan of Portland, Ore., 7 and 6.

NEW YORK (AP)—The Continental League yesterday recommended that the Kefauver sports bill substitute an unrestricted player draft for a clause that would have limited each major league team to control of 100 players.
