Retiring Professors Get Emeritus Rank

The rank of professor emeritus has been granted to eight members of the University faculty.

The professors are John Lupton Mecartney, Edwin H. Rohrbeck, Dr. Harrison M. Tietz, Robert D. Scheirer, Norman R. Sparks, Della J. Avery, Ina Padgett and Walter W. Simonds.

Mecartney has served for 32 years in the Department of Pomology. A University of Maryland graduate, Mecartney retired March 1.

Rohrbeck will retire July 1 as professor emeritus of agricultural extension. He has served on the faculty since 1924 after serving as a writer for the Milwaukee Journal. Rohrbeck graduated in 1924 from the University of Wisconsin where he also received his master's degree in science in 1928.

Tietz, a graduate of the University of Massachusetts where he also received his doctorate, will retire July 1 as professor emeritus of anatomy and physiology. He has been at the University since 1926.

Scheirer will retire Oct. 1. He has been at the University since his graduation in 1922. Scheirer will receive the rank of professor emeritus in civil engineering.

Sparks will retire July 1 as professor emeritus of mechanical engineering. He has been head of the department since 1946 and in the department since 1924 when he was graduated from Clarkson College of Technology.

Miss Avery, recipient of the university's citation for excellence of teaching last year, will retire July 1 as professor emerita in child development and family relations. She graduated from Temple University and did graduate work at University of Chicago, Cornell and Penn State and has been here since 1937. Miss Padgett will retire July 1 with the rank of professor emerita in foods and nutrition after having served 32 years on the faculty. Simonds, chairman of forestry extension, will retire June 30 as professor emeritus of forestry extension. Simonds joined the Penn State staff in 1936 as assistant professor of forestry extension. He initiated biennial conferences for Pennsylvania forest tree nurserymen. He received his bachelor of science degree from Cornell University in 1921 and a master of science a year later.

The selections of professors for emeritus rank are made by the Board of Trustees.

Hammond Given Award As Scholar, Athlete

Lacrosse three-letterman Dick Hammond has received an Eastern College Athletic Conference Scholarship Medallion for scholastic and athletic excellence.

Hammond, who carried a B-plus average, was graduated today with a bachelor of science degree in business administration. He was a regular on the lacrosse team for three years.

He was president of the Men's Athletic Association, vice president of Varsity "S" Club and a member of the Athletic Advisory Board.

Pollock Road Opened

As a convenience to commencement visitors and, a week hence, alumni reunioners, Pollock Rd. will be opened to vehicular traffic.

Albert E. Diem, vice president for business administration, said the move was made to facilitate traffic and minimize confusion.
