RETURNING ALUMNI Mr. ('11) and Mrs. ('12) Thomas-Stahle register (above) at the start of three days of class reunions. They were among the nearly 1500 who proudly wore the badges designating their graduating class. RECREATION HALL was jammed (right) with the one-time undergraduates for a box lunch and entertainment, Saturday.

ENTERTAINMENT at Rec Hall was provided by a quartet (above) singing a medley of songs by George M. Cohan. The medley was in honor of the class of 1910, which celebrated its golden reunion.

THE CLASS OF '32 Harvard, in the person of University President Eric A. Walker, greets two members of the Penn State class of 1895 (right) outside Rec Hall following Saturday's special lunch. Dr. Walker and Ridge Riley, '32, executive secretary of the Alumni Association, chat with two alums (left).

EVERYBODY LOVES A PARADE and the alums were no exception. They held one Saturday that reached from Recreation Hall to Schwab Auditorium. Each class marched below its own placard, led by the horse drawn rag-time band.
