

Barriers Mount For 3rd League

CHICAGO (AP)—The Continental League will try to jell into a third major league at meetings today with baseball's expansion committees but Hank Greenberg doesn't think it is possible.

Frick Says One All-Star Game in '62

NEW YORK (AP)—The major leagues will return the traditional one all-star game per year after the 1961 season, Commissioner Ford Frick announced yesterday.

But not before two games are played next year—the first at Candlestick Park, home of the San Francisco Giants, in July and the second about a month later in an unspecified eastern American League city.

Frick said the players voted by a 6 to 1 margin to retain the two all-star games for another year and the club owners agreed, providing there would be a one-month lapse between games.

The Associated Press last week reported that the clubs voted 12-4 in favor of the second game in 1961. The AP learned Cleveland, Washington, Philadelphia and San Francisco had voted against the second game.

The probable date for the 1961 game in San Francisco is July 11. It is believed the second game will be in Boston Aug. 8.

In 1959, the first year two games were played, the first was in Pittsburgh in July, the second in Los Angeles in August.

This year the games were played in Kansas City, July 11, and New York, July 13. The National League won both, 5-3 and 6-0.

Yankee Stadium, which seats 68,000, was only half filled for the second game, and there was much criticism that the second game was only a money-raising stunt and that fans resented it.

The players, who devised the idea for the second game, receive portions of receipts of both games, for their pension fund.

However, Frick said yesterday, "It is the feeling of the clubs and many of the players that after 1961 the schedule should revert to the old plan of one all-star game per year.

a member of the American League expansion committee, told the Associated Press:

"Representatives of the Continental League are expected to show the expansion committees of the American and National Leagues how they have qualified for recognition as a third major league under the 10-point plan the majors set up last year.

They haven't even got off the ground on the two primary points of the plan—that of getting territorial rights and building ball parks. So far there have been only conversations. They have done very little about putting up any money, but they've done a lot of talking."

Greenberg said that judging from the estimated worth of American League franchises, eight clubs in the Continental League would have to be considered a 40 million dollar investment.

"They haven't settled the problem of indemnification of minor leagues for cities they will lose," said Greenberg. They haven't made any progress because they haven't put out any money. I know they could have bought Montreal for $150,000, including 10 triple A players, but they didn't do it.

"When the majors presented their 10-point plan a year ago, Branch Rickey, Continental League president, was delighted with it. But it is harder to do something than just talk about it."

Gridders to Seek 22nd Consecutive Winning Season

Penn State will seek its 22nd consecutive winning football season this fall.

The Nittany Lions last lost more grid games than they won in 1938, when their record was 3-4-1.

Since jumping off on their winning streak in 1939, Penn State has recorded 129 triumphs, 50 defeats, and 8 ties.

Included in that record was a 13-13 tie with Southern Methodist in the Cotton Bowl following a 9-1 campaign in 1947, and a 7-0 victory over Alabama in the 1959 Liberty Bowl after a 8-2 season.

Coach Rip Engle, at the helm since 1950, owns a 62-28-4 record. He'll begin his 11th campaign Sept. 17 when the Lions open their nine-game card against Boston University.

Golf Letters Awarded

Penn State varsity golf letters for the 1960 season have been presented to Dick Burgoon, Carlisle; Bob Devine, Media; Ed Kormos, Erie; Roy Altman, Brookville; Haydn Thomas, Peckville; John Morton, Rixford, and Bob Rutherford, State College. Morton will succeed Burgoon as Nittany Lion captain next year.

Top Pitchers Predict Pirates Will Take Flag

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates' top-two pitchers said yesterday they believe the Pirates have an excellent chance of winning the National League pennant.

Vernon Law (13-5) and Bob Friend (11-7) didn't volunteer the comment. Like all of the Pirates they are a bit reticent to talk pennant.

The front-running Pirates, now two games ahead of second-place Milwaukee and four in front of third-place Los Angeles, open an 18-game home stand against the Dodgers tonight. Law had this to say about the Bucs' pennant chances:

"I think we have as good a chance as anyone. We're in first place. Of course, Los Angeles is having a good streak right now but the question is how long can they keep it up.

"When we left on this last trip I said if we returned home in first place we would have a real good shot at the pennant," commented Friend. "Now, I think we are in pretty good shape. I realize there are a lot of teams still in the race. But we're in good shape."
