Sorority Rush To Begin Soon

Registration for the fall sorority rushing program will be held between 8 a.m. and 12 noon Saturday in the Panhellenic office in Grange Hall.

Second semester freshmen from any of the Commonwealth Campuses having a 2.3 All-University average and all other upperclasswomen from the Penn State centers who have 2.00 or above are eligible to rush. A transcript must be presented at registration.

All upperclasswomen from other schools are eligible to rush without showing a transcript from their former school.

A fee of $2 will be required from each woman to cover the expenses of registration.

Students will not be allowed to enter either of the main gates at the open (southern) end of the stadium. The purpose for the new entrance arrangements is to expedite the flow of fans into and out of the stadium, according to Richard A. McDowell, Athletic Association administrative assistant.

Association administrative assistant.

Seating plans place the seniors and grad students in sections EF and EG from the 40 to the 25-yard lines in both decks of the east stands. Juniors will sit sections EH and EJ.

Sophomores and freshmen will sit in the horseshoe at the north end of the stadium. The sophomores' section will be the northeast half from NF to NL and the freshmen will occupy the northwest half from NA to NF.

The Blue Band will sit in the lower east stands between the 10 and 20-yard line (crossed section in map) and the Block "S" Club flashcard section (dotted section) will be in the lower east stands from the 20 to 35-yard lines.

Tradition

Duffy's Tavern is a mere four miles from State College and it's worthwhile going out. You'll see why it has been a Penn State tradition for so many years. Don't be worried about dress, either — it's informal. You're as welcome as one of the family.
