

Top Teams in Action In College Football

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The major college football season swings into high gear today, hardly waiting to draw a breath from summer vacations and practice sessions.

Over two dozen major elevens begin their 1960 campaign, and you'll have to look hard to find any of the easy openers of by-gone days. These teams get a one-week jump on the traditional last-Saturday-in-September openers and they do it in a big way.

DuMars Seeks All-American Cage Laurels

Mark DuMars, already highest scoring "little man" in Penn State basketball history, will have one more campaign in which to embellish his impressive record.

The 5-10 backcourt wizard will enter the 1960-61 campaign with a two-season total of 805 points. He scored 337 points with a 16.8 average as a sophomore, and last season placed among the national leaders with 468 and a 21.3 average and a 21.3 average.

The Sharon sharp-shooter and ace play-maker has his sights set on All-American laurels this year.

Wally Colender, DuMar's backcourt partner for the past two years, also will be back this season in a different position. He will coach the Lion freshmen.

Wills' Run Scoring Hit Gives Dodgers Victory

CHICAGO (AP) — Maury Wills' run-scoring single in the ninth inning provided Los Angeles with a 5-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs yesterday after the Dodgers had blown a four-run lead behind right-hander Don Drysdale.

The loss was the sixth straight for the Cubs, who managed to end Drysdale's string of scoreless innings at 26 but were stymied by reliever Larry Sherry.

A walk and a sacrifice preceded Wills' ninth inning single which provided Sherry with his 14th victory against 8 losses. Joe Schaffernoth (2-3) was the loser.

Erne McCoy, Penn State athletic director, is a graduate of the University of Michigan where he played baseball, basketball, and football.

Entries Due For IM Grid Sept. 23rd

Falling leaves and brisk winds are a reminder that intramural football is just around the corner.

Dutch Sykes, IM director, said yesterday that play would start during the second week of classes but the exact date has not yet been determined.

Sykes did say that the deadline for all entries—fraternity and independent—is 4:30 p.m. Sept. 23. All entries must be turned in at the IM office in Rec Hall.

Touch football at Penn State differs quite a bit from that played in many other areas.

The rules are designed to eliminate the heavy contact that results from unrestricted blocking and charging. The forward pass is the main offensive weapon and light blocking is permitted to give the passer time to pick out receivers. Downfield blocking and interference for the runner is prohibited.

First downs are important in determining the winners of games which end in a tie score.

Nine players constitute a team in IM football and games are 40 minutes. All games will be played on the lighted intramural fields on the golf course. Games are scheduled from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Sykes also announced that all entries for the tennis singles tournament should be turned into the IM office by 4:30 p.m. Sept. 23. He said play will begin on or about Sept. 28.

Full Slate

Penn State, scheduled for only nine football games this fall, will return to a 10-game slate in 1961.

Though defending national champion Syracuse, also picked to repeat in 1960 by a pre-season poll of the Associated Press board of football experts, is idle, several aspirants to the throne are busy.

Mississippi, second in the 1959 and the Sugar Bowl champ, travels to play the University of Houston.

Washington, the Far West favorite who belted Wisconsin 44-8 in the Rose Bowl, brings its 1959 first team back intact. All-American quarterback Bab Schloredt, with halfback George Fleming and fullback Don McKeta, goes against tough little College of the Pacific.

Defending Southwest Conference champion Texas also bites off a tough one in Nebraska, a Big Eight team that broke Oklahoma's unbeaten conference winning streak at 74 last year.

Texas Christian takes on tough Kansas, picked by some for the Big Eight title.

The national television schedule gets underway on a new network (ABC), with the SEC clash between Alabama and Georgia 3:45 p.m. EST.
