

Caye Leads Offensive Attack

State Gains 329 Yards On Ground

(Continued from page one) the game. "It was a real comeback. I hope he can keep it up."

Fullback Sam Sobczak, as dependable as Sunday, also had a good afternoon.

Sobczak, along with Caye, did most of the damage with short gainers and finished with 64 yards in 14 carries.

Halfback Jim Kerr, who does everything so well that you hardly know he's on the field, racked up 56 yards in 12 times out and added impetus to State's vicious attack which rolled up 329 yards on the ground. The Lions gained 43 yards through the air on four completions in nine attempts.

Then there was the play of sophomore linemen, Charley Sieminski, Jim Smith, Jerry Farkas, Dave Robinson and Joe Elascstein.

All were extremely aggressive in their first outing, especially Robinson and Blascstein, the alternate unit guards and Sieminski, a tackle.

Twice Robinson ripped through the BU line to throw Terrier ballcarriers for huge losses and Sieminski spent plenty of time harrasing the Bostonians, too.

Blascstein saved the shutout for Galen Hall and Dick Hoak when he made a come-from-behind tackle on BU's Charley Meadows after he had scooted 57 yards on a draw play in the third period.

Meadows' dash from the BU 25 to the Lion 17 was the deepest penetration the Beantowners made all afternoon.

With a first down situation at the 17, the Terrier drive stalled and Sieminski and Farkas appeared to end the threat when they threw Boston QB Jack Farland for an 8-yard loss.

However, on fourth down, Farland heaved what looked like a certain touchdown pass to halfback Al Stonkus, but he caught it just outside the end zone and the Lions took over on downs.

All of State's scoring came in the first half.

Caye set up the first touchdown

—Collegian photo by Rick Bower

SHORT GAIN—Penn State's Jim Kerr (14) managed to gain short yardage on this end run in third quarter against Boston University Saturday. A shoe string tackle by Bob Minihane (on ground) slowed Kerr up long enough for Hugh O'Flynn (43) to apply the clincher. State won 20-0 at Beaver Stadium.

midway in the first period when he broke BU's opening game march with an interception on the Penn State 26.

Caye, from Pittsburgh, Pa., returned the ball 10 yards to the 36 and from there Galen Hall and his first unit battering rams took over.

Sobczak and Kerr alternated on three and four yarders, and occasionally Caye would go for five as the Lions began to sweep through the Terrier line.

Even BU's All-American tackle candidate Bob Minihane couldn't stop the onslaught.

"Penn State's line was just too aggressive," he said, "it seemed better than last year's and they were great."

"The whole team executed their plays exceptionally well for this time of the year," he added.

After Caye moved the ball to the eight on a pitchout from Hall,

Kerr ripped off three yards to put the ball on the five.

Sobczak barreled his way up the middle to the one and from there Caye went over for the first score in Beaver Stadium.

Captain Henry Oppermann added the extra point for a 7-0 lead to cap the 64-yard drive which took 15 plays.

A fumble recovery by the ever alert Robinson on the BU 25 started Penn State on the way toward the second touchdown.

This time the alternate unit was on the field and Dick Hoak galloped 14 yards on a keeper for the big gain.

The quarter ended with the ball on the BU 11-yard line. Then Dick Pae scooted for five, and sophomore fullback Bud Torris picked up four more.

Al Gursky drove to the one and Torris carried over on the next play for a 13-0 edge. Hoak's pass for the extra point failed.

The last touchdown came seconds before the end of the half when Kerr capped an 80-yard grind by scoring from the one. This drive took 16 plays.

Oppermann again added the extra point and the Lions coasted home with a 20-0 triumph.

The Lions played possession football during the second half and outdefensed the Terriers whenever they lost the ball.

With the game salted away, Engle went to the bench in the last quarter and gave the predominantly sophomore third unit a chance to see action.

Boston U will have plenty of trouble again this weekend when it plays national champ Syracuse.

The Lions will take a week off before meeting Missouri, Oct. 1, in the homecoming clash.

Gridiron Notes

The Lions came out of the BU opener with plenty of minor injuries and one that could be serious . . . Sophomore tackle Jim Smith spent Saturday night in the University Hospital resting a banged knee . . . The medical corps hasn't determined how serious the injury is yet . . . Jim Schwab who did a commendable job starting at right end in place of Bob Mitinger sprained an ankle . . . Guard Bill Popp had a stiff shoulder . . . The injury jinx that has sidelined so many Penn State stars is beginning to catch up with Pitt . . . The Panthers lost All-American guard candidate Larry Vignali for two weeks with a shoulder injury in the 8-7 loss to U.C.L.A. Saturday . . . The other starting Pitt guard, Regis Coustillec has a fractured thumb . . . End coach J. T. White scouted the Missouri-S.M.U. game in Columbia, Mo., last weekend . . . He'll watch the Tigers again Saturday at Columbia against Oklahoma State . . . Line coach Tor Toretto saw Army roll over Buffalo, 37-0 . . . People who saw the Alabama-Georgia game on television Saturday swear that the Crimson Tide has adopted Penn State's wide open (1959) style of play which resulted in Bama's 7-0 loss to the Lions in the Liberty Bowl last December . . . Incidentally, Bud Dudley the co-promoter of the "South Broad St. Classic" is now dabbling in hockey with the Philadelphia Ramblers of the Eastern League . . . All of Penn State's scores Saturday came on one-yard plunges . . . The 1909 team which dedicated Beaver Field with a 31-0 win over Grove City received a warm round of applause during the halftime ceremonies.

Gym Managers Wanted

All sophomores interested in becoming assistant gym managers should report to the Athletic Assoc. Office in Rec Hall as soon as possible.

Tigers Easy Victor Over S.M.U., 20-0

The Lions' next opponent, Missouri, won its first opening game in 12 years Saturday by defeating S.M.U., 20-0, at Columbia, Mo.

Speed Merchant Mel West, who rambled for a total of 72 yards against State last year, figured prominently in the win.

In other games featuring future Lion opponents, Pitt was upset in the last 33 seconds by a tough UCLA eleven, 8-7; Army crushed ambitious Buffalo, 37-0; and Maryland stunned West Virginia, 31-8.

San Francisco Wins

CHICAGO (AP) — Bob Schmidt's grand slam homer gave the San Francisco Giants a 4-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs yesterday after the Giants had won the first game of a doubleheader, 11-4, on a pair of homers by Willie Kirkland.

Game Statistics

LINEUP		Fumbles lost
BOSTON UNIVERSITY		1	1
Ends—Shiesley, Viti, DeNitto, Stack, Keimer		Yards penalized	65
INDIVIDUAL STATISTICS			44
Tackles—Minihane, Perreault, Piccolo		Boston U. Rushing
Handy, Kwiffner		Player	Times Carried
Guards—Mecchino, DeLorenzo, Turkalo		Desmarais	12
Josephs, Adams		Meadows	6
Centers—Stephans, Russo		Luker	7
Backs—Farland, Desmarais, O'Flynn, Luker, Squarcia, Daubney, Stonkus, Prebola, Meadows, Kieley		Kieley	2
PENN STATE		Farland	9
Ends—Oppermann, Schwab, Alexander, Davis, Truitt		Stonkus	2
Tackles—Barber, Smith, Sieminski, Farkas, Tielens		O'Flynn	2
Guards—Wilson, Popp, Blascstein, Robinson, Waresak, Hart		Prebola	1
Center—Huffman, Saul, Raisig, Galardi		Squarcia	2
Backs—Hall, Caye, Kerr, Sobczak, Hoak, Gursky, Pae, Torris, Lang, Kline, Wayne, Hayes		Boston U. Passing
Score by periods:		Player	Att. Comp. Inter. Yds.
Boston U.	0 0 0 0-0	Farland	9 4 1 61
Penn State	7 13 0 0-20	Squarcia	1 0 0 0
Penn State scoring:		Penn State Rushing
Touchdown—Caye (1-rush); Torris (1-rush); Kerr (1-rush). Conversions—Oppermann 2 (placements).		Player	Times Carried
STATISTICAL SUMMARY		Caye	14
Penn State Boston U.		Sobczak	14
First downs	28 14	Kerr	12
Yards rushing	329 189	Hoak	7
Yards passing	43 51	Hall	10
Passes completed	4-9	Gursky	6
Passes had intercepted	2	Hayes	2
Punts	2	Pae	3
Punting average	39 27	Kline	1
		Torris	2
		Wayne	2
		Penn State Passing
		Player	Att. Comp. Inter. Yds.
		Hall	4 2 1 20
		Hoak	2 1 0 11
		Lang	3 1 1 12

THE PENN STATE JAZZ CLUB

WILL MEET AT

10 SPARKS 7 P.M.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 21

All Interested Are Welcome

Runaway Raft!

WE'LL NEVER MAKE IT, DAN! LOOK! RAPIDS AHEAD!

WE'RE NOT DONE YET!

WOW! WHAT A CAST!

SHE'S SNUBBED AROUND THE TREE—THAT'S THE MAIN THING!

When their raft's mooring line parts, two "muskie" fishermen desperately fight the current to reach the shore of the river . . .

Dan ties a pocketknife onto his fishline . . .

THE CURRENTS HELPING US SWING IN— IF THAT 25-POUND TEST LINE HOLDS WE'LL JUST CLEAR THE RAPIDS!

YOU SURE THINK FOR YOURSELF!

"25-lb. test" means the line itself will stand 25 pounds of pull, but with the aid of the "spring" in the pole, it will hold much more.

LATER

VICEROY? THANKS! SAY... WHY DO YOU THINK VICEROY'S BEST?

BECAUSE VICEROY'S GOT IT... AT BOTH ENDS! GOT THE FILTER, GOT THE BLEND!

THE RIGHT TASTE BECAUSE Viceroy's got it... at both ends

GOT THE FILTER... GOT THE BLEND!

© 1960, BROWN & WILLIAMSON TOBACCO CORP.