

Offense Is Pleasant Surprise To Nittany Lion Soccer Coach

By CRAIG YERKES

(This is the final article in a series on Penn State's soccer team. Today, the offense.)

Some of the doubts Lion soccer coach Ken Hosterman had about his offensive attack were erased when his booters crushed Lock Haven State Teachers College, 6-0, in a practice game at Lock Haven Tuesday.

The veteran Lion mentor was a bit surprised and yet quite pleased with the performance of the hustling, but inexperienced Penn State front line. "We've had only one or two practices when the whole team was there. Registration and other necessary first week chores accounted for that," Hosterman said. "As things stand now I won't be able to use two of last year's letter winners against Bucknell Saturday."

Hosterman was referring to Howie Farrar, last year's starting center-forward, and Jules Beshousko, another regular on the '59 line.

Farrar and Beshousko both were late in taking physical exams and will not be eligible for the home opener.

The scoring in the Lock Haven scrimmage was handled by Lou

GLENN REAM ... a pleasant surprise

Van Rafelghem, Beshousko, and Tony Mattei, a trio of slick vets. Glenn Ream and Val Djurdjevic, a pair of promising newcomers also tallied for the Lions.

"Almost every position on the forward line is up for grabs," Hosterman said. "Spirit and desire are higher now than during most of last year, and each boy knows that he must battle for his position. There are many promising sophomores and transfers who are really pushing the vets for the first team berths."

Ream has never played college soccer, but Hosterman said he was outstanding Tuesday when he scored two goals.

Ream and Naylor are the only two that are fairly certain of first team assignments for the opener.

Raiford and Van Rafelghem are being pushed for their jobs on the left side of the line by Lantz Lee, a junior who was on the squad last year, but did not win a letter.

Lee has improved a great deal over the past year and will see a lot of action Hosterman said.

Von Rafelghem is a two-letterman and will be hard to move from the left wing position. Raiford, normally a halfback, was moved to the front line in an attempt to give the Nittany attack a boost.

The other open slot is inside-right and competition is high at that post between McKeesport transfer Djurdjevic and Mattei. Hosterman has been moving both boys in and out of the lineup this fall and hasn't made a decision as to who will start.

On the surface the Lions appear stronger than last year, but inexperience and lack of cohesion could hurt.

Only time and such National soccer powers as Temple, West Chester, Army, Navy, and Maryland will tell.

Parker Optimistic As Opener Nears

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Coach Buddy Parker of the National Football League Pittsburgh Steelers wastes no words in praising his 1960 team.

"It's the best offensive team I've had since I came to Pittsburgh," says the soft-spoken leathery-faced Texan now in his fourth season with the Steelers.

Right now Parker is the only man in town beating the football drums. Most of the attention is centering on the front running Pittsburgh Pirates bidding for their first pennant in 33 years.

But it's not too early for Parker to talk football. The Steelers open their season Saturday in the Cotton Bowl against the Dallas Cowboys, the NFL's newest entry.

Parker's 1950 squad is sprinkled with 24 veterans of last year's team, seven veterans acquired in trades and seven rookies. He calls the assembly a good nucleus.

The biggest surprise in the Steelers' training camp has been Charley Scates, a stocky 215-pound rookie fullback who never played college football.

He didn't figure into Parker's plans until John Henry Johnson hurt his leg. Parker took one look at the 22-year-old who runs like a scared race horse and signed him.

The Steelers opened their exhibition grind with an impressive 43-16 triumph over the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League.

But the Parkermen soon found the Canadian brand and the type played in the NFL don't necessarily mix the same way. They lost the next three. Green Bay grabbed a 20-13 decision, Cleveland eked out a 27-24 triumph and Detroit took the next one 13-6.

If Parker was upset by the three straight setbacks he lost little sleep. The Steelers then beat Baltimore 34-26 and tied Chicago 21-21 with the Bears managing a tie in the closing minutes.

In the last two games against the Baltimore and Chicago veteran quarterback Bobby Layne, who improves with age, threw only 25 times. He usually throws that many passes, if not more, in a single game.

"Actually we don't intend to play this type of game," said Parker in summing up his conclusions. "We're just working on our running attack."

"Right now our problem is defense. Our offense is much, much better. The best I've seen. But our defense will come around."

AP Picks Syracuse, Irish To Win Top Grid Games

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Since the Russians claim the game of "futbol" had its birth in the Soviet Union, we thought it a good idea to have Premier Khrushchev, a visitor here this week, lend a hand with the weekend grid selections.

Nikita said, "Nyet," so we go it alone:

Notre Dame 22, California 7; Coach Joe Kuharich's professional touch begins to pay dividends. Cal's pass defense too porous.

Mississippi 21, Kentucky 0; George Blair and Jim Anderson spark the nation's No. 1 team to an easy victory.

Southern California 13, Texas Christian 7; The Trojans' race-horse backfield finds its legs against a formidable foe.

Oklahoma 19, Northwestern 7; The Sooners survive with a team of hobbled halfbacks and a rugged defense.

Texas 14, Maryland 7; Explosive backfield performers give the Longhorns an edge in a tough intersectional game.

Ohio State 20, Southern Methodist 13; The Texans haven't a quarterback to replace Don Meredith.

Michigan State 19, Pittsburgh 7; The Spartans may be the best team in the Big Ten, which is good enough.

The others: EAST—Syracuse 34, 7.

Boston U. 7; Yale 21, Connecticut 0; Rutgers 14, Princeton 12; Navy 33, Villanova 0; Army 29, Boston College 13.

MIDWEST—Michigan 19, Oregon 8; Wisconsin 18, Stanford 13; Illinois 21, Indiana 14; Purdue 14, UCLA 7; Iowa 18, Oregon State 14; Kansas 33, Kansas State 12; Nebraska 14, Minnesota 13.

SOUTH—Auburn 14, Tennessee 7; North Carolina 14, North Carolina State 7; West Virginia 20, Virginia Tech 12; Clemson 24, Wake Forest 20; Georgia 14, Vanderbilt 6; Georgia Tech 21, Rice 7.

SOUTHWEST — Arkansas 19, Tulsa 8; Baylor 21, Colorado 7; Arizona State at Tempe 7, West Texas 0; Texas A & M 14, Texas Tech 6.

FAR WEST—Air Force 20, Colorado State U. 7; Arizona 14, Utah 13; College of Pacific 13, Marquette 0; Washington 28, Idaho 14; Wyoming 21, New Mexico

Yankees Down Senators, 10-3 For 6th in Row

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Yankees edged closer to another American League pennant yesterday with the help of nine unearned runs in a 10-3 romp over the Washington Senators. It was their sixth straight victory.

Four Washington errors, two in the fifth inning when the Yanks scored seven unearned runs, doomed Pedro Ramos to his 16th defeat.

The only earned run scored by the Yanks was Mickey Mantle's home run in the fourth inning.

As a result of the victory the Yanks led second-place Baltimore by five full games and needed any combination of five New York victories or Baltimore and Chicago defeats to clinch the flag.

Whitey Ford, lifted for a pinch hitter in the big fifth inning, was credited with his 11th victory. Duke Maas mopped up, allowing only two hits in the last four innings.

Washington built up a 3-1 lead against Ford in the first five innings before their defense crumpled in the last of the fifth.

Ramos hadn't allowed a hit until Mantle hit homer No. 37 with two out and nobody on in the fourth.
