

Penn State Harriers Clash With Big Red

Penn State will open its 1960 cross country season this afternoon at Ithaca, N.Y., against a weakened Cornell team.

Injuries to Dick Chapman and Eric Groom, Cornell's top harriers, make Penn State the favorite today.

Captain Herm Weber, Steve Moorhead and Denny Johnson, who finished second, third, and fourth respectively last year against Cornell will be the top men in State's lineup. Sophomore standout Gerry Norman adds extra power to the Lion lineup.

Norman, the freshman IC4A champion in 1959, lost only once last year and that was to Chapman who will be watching from the sidelines today.

Ernie Noll, who lettered in 1958 but missed the 1959 campaign, also will be on hand this afternoon.

Noll turned in a respectable season as a sophomore, usually finishing behind the Lions' Freddy Kerr, Ed Moran, Dick Engelbrink, and Weber.

Senior Dave La Hoff, juniors Mike Miller and Fred Larson, and sophomores Lionel Bassett, Howie Deardorff, Walt Miller and Dave Eversole round out State's lineup.

The Lion harriers will be looking for their fifth straight win over the Big Red. Last year State had little trouble with Cornell as Engelbrink finished first.

Assistant coach Norm Gordon gets his first look at the freshmen today in a preliminary meet with the Cornell yearlings.

Houston Offense Tops

DALLAS (AP) — Houston's crunching ground game has it out front in total offense in the American Football League.

The Oilers lead in rushing with 176.7 yards per game while Los Angeles is the top team in the aerial game with 241.3. But Los Angeles ranks near the bottom in rushing, with only 65.7, and Houston is third in passing with 203.0.

Frosh Footballers Will Meet Mounties

The Penn State freshman football team will open its four-game schedule tomorrow when it tackles West Virginia at Beaver field.

Last fall the Mounties surprised Penn State, 14-6, at Morgantown for the Lion cubs' first defeat in four years.

In a tune-up for tomorrow's contest against Penn State, coach Ed Shockey's troops manhandled Fairmont State Teachers College 48-6, to give the school its worst beating since 1954.

Quarterbacks Fred (Colt) Colvard and Jerry Yost passed for two touchdowns apiece, while Yost, Glenn Holton and Dick Frum all scored on one-yard plunges.

Away games with Army, Navy, and Pitt round out Penn State's schedule.

Bills Sign Lewis

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—The Buffalo Bills of the American Football League yesterday announced the signing of Hal Lewis, a 202-pound flanker back who formerly played with the Baltimore Colts of the National League.

Sebastian Found Guilty In Pittsburgh Bribe Case

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Dr. Edward Sebastian, a dentist from suburban McKees Rocks, was found guilty yesterday of trying to bribe two University of Pittsburgh basketball players to shave points.

Visiting Judge Ethan Allen Gearhart of Lehigh County handed down the verdict following a non-jury trial.

The charges against Sebastian were filed by John Fridley, 21, of Sharon, Pa., and Dick Palenski, 21, of Latrobe, Pa.
