

Nittany Harriers Score Easy Win Over Cornell

Special to The Daily Collegian
ITHACA, N.Y., Sept. 30—Penn State's cross country team got off to a roaring start today, downing Cornell, 15-47, in the 1960 opener here.

Five Lion harriers steamed across the tape in a dead heat for first place.

Captain Herm Weber, Steve Moorhead, Gerry Norman, Ernie Noll, and Howie Deardorff pulled off the Penn State sweep in the time of 28:03.5.

The five Lion distance men ran together all the way and ran an extremely strong race.

Frank Brockman, the Cornell captain who was running with sore knees, was the first man to place for the Big Red. He came in sixth in the time of 28:51.

Pete Slater finished a step behind Brockman and was clocked in the same time to record seventh place for Cornell.

Eighth place went to the Nittanies' Lionel Bassett, who finished in 28:55.

Cornell's Ray Westendorp captured ninth place with a time of 29:06.

State's Denny Johnson took tenth place, while the Big Red's John Munday followed in 29:20.

Capturing 12th, 13th, and 14th for the Lions were Mike Miller, Fred Larson, and Dave Lahoff.

A driving rain greeted the runners as they lined up for the start. The deluge, accompanied by strong, gusty winds, hindered the harriers throughout the entire meet.

In a preliminary meet, the Lion frosh lost, 33-22.

Steve Machooka and Jim Sims were the big guns for Cornell, finishing better than a minute ahead of their nearest competitors.

This was Machooka's second win of the season and Cornell coach, Lou Montgomery, feels he has a bright prospect in the runner from Nairobi, Africa.

Bob Crowe was State's top man, copping third place in 17:48.

Standing Room Only

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Yankees announced yesterday that only standing room seats are now available for the World Series games in Yankee Stadium. The three stadium games are sell-outs.

This excludes the 14,000 bleacher seats which are placed on sale daily on the day of the game.

Wrist Injury May Keep Groat Out of World Series Lineup

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
PITTSBURGH (AP) — No one in the Pittsburgh camp is willing to be quoted but few really believe that Dick Groat, the Pirates' valuable shortstop and captain, will play against the New York Yankees in the World Series starting next Wednesday.

Even Groat is no more than merely hopeful.

And those who think Groat will be able to make it aren't sure he'll be at full strength. They question whether he can pick up where he left off after a month on the sidelines while recovering from a fractured left wrist sustained Sept. 6.

Pirate Manager Danny Murtaugh is not overly optimistic. "But if anybody can make it, it's Groat," said Murtaugh. "He always keeps in top shape and he has the determination and desire."

Groat began light workouts last week after the cast had been removed and he stepped up his pace each day. He hit for a half hour in —Dick Harlow who gained coaching fame at Harvard, coached football at Penn State from 1915 through 1917. His teams won 20 games, lost eight.

HERM WEBER

Series Fan Starts 6-Day Ticket Wait

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Ralph J. Belcore of Chicago plunked a stool down by Forbes Field yesterday and started a 124-hour and 15-minute wait to see the first game of the World Series.

Belcore is the first in line to buy a standing-room-only ticket for the Series opener between the Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Yankees next Wednesday.

He arrived at Forbes Field at 8:30 yesterday morning after traveling by bus from Chicago. He had with him a topcoat, a bag of sandwiches, a traveling bag and the stool.

Standing-room tickets go on sale at 12:45 p.m. Wednesday.

Belcore said he started attending the World Series in this manner in 1940. Since that time, he said he's seen 94 Series games.

"Last year I waited eight nights and seven days outside Comiskey Park in Chicago to get a bleacher seat," he said. "This broke my previous record of seven nights and six days, set in Brooklyn in 1956."

batting practice last Monday and, according to Murtaugh, Dick felt encouraged.

"Groat said the wrist didn't bother him too much," said Murtaugh.

The manager wasn't asked how Groat felt after a batting practice session the following night. The question was put to one of Groat's teammates.

"Terrible," was the reply. "Dick complained of pain in the wrist. He could hardly hold onto the bat at the end of the swing. I don't see how he would be ready by next week."

Saint Andrews CHURCH BUS Sunday

10:30 a.m. Leave Warnock Hall
10:35 a.m. South Garner St. (near College Ave.)
10:40 a.m. Arr. St. Andrews

Bus returns to these points immediately after church.

Soccermen Hope to End Rams' Jinx

Penn State's soccer team will be seeking its first victory of the 1960 campaign and its first decision over West Chester in four years on the Rams' field this morning.

The defending eastern champs are expected to field another tough squad, with most of last year's starters returning.

West Chester's jinx over the Lions dates back to 1956, when State's 19-game winning streak was snapped in a 0-0 game.

In 1957, the West Chester eleven ended State's home winning streak at 15 straight. Then in 1958 West Chester defeated the Lions, 5-1, and last year the Rams won by the same score on Beaver Field.

Coach Ken Hosterman will make only two changes in State's lineup. Junior John Miller will replace Lion captain and fullback Wayne Rodgers and Howie Farrer will start in place of Lou Van Rafelghem.

An ankle injury and a fever prevented Rodgers from making the trip. Miller did not start against Bucknell, but saw plenty of action in State's 6-2 loss.

Gene Raiford, inside-left Russ Naylor, center-forward; Val Djurdjevic, inside-right; and Glenn Ream, right wing will join Farrar on the forward line.

Bill Rierson heads the Lion halfback corps. Rierson will be at left halfback, Ed Hebel at center-halfback and Jay Stormer, the standout of the Bucknell game, will hold down right halfback. Ken Link will start at the other fullback slot.

Hosterman plans to use both his goalies against the Rams, but junior letterman Dave Grubbs will get the starting assignment.

Welters Sign Contract

NEW YORK (AP) — Argentina's Frederico Thompson will meet Gaspar Ortega, veteran Mexican welterweight, in a television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden, Oct. 29, Harry Markson, the Garden's boxing general manager, said yesterday.

Markson also booked South Africa's Willie Towee for a TV 10-rounder against Emile Griffith, fifth-ranking welterweight from New York, for the Garden, Oct. 22.

Royalty Visits Ivy Game

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — The Yale and Brown football teams will have a royal spectator—King Hussein of Jordan — when they meet here today.

The 24-year-old king, a sports enthusiast, will return to New York after the game.

Syracuse, Huskies Meet Tough Foes

By JOHN CLARY

Associated Press Sports Writer

Syracuse and Washington go against intersectional rivals and Northwestern faces Iowa in the headline games of today's college football program which is certain to scramble the national rankings.

Syracuse, defending national champion and second-ranked in the Associated Press poll, invades Lawrence, Kan., for a battle with improved Kansas, rated No. 5. The game is to be nationally televised, starting at 1:45 p.m. EST, over ABC.

Washington risks its No. 3 ranking against powerful Navy, which has won its two opening games impressively. The game is at Seattle.

Northwestern, No. 6, and Iowa, No. 8, clash in a struggle of Big Ten giants at Evanston, Ill. Northwestern is slightly favored.

Top-ranked Mississippi gets another tuneup before going after the heart of its Southeastern Conference schedule meeting Memphis State. Ole Miss has won its first two games.

Southern California, still winless in two starts, travels to Ohio State, No. 9. The Buckeyes have a 24-0 victory over Southern Methodist.

Illinois, No. 4, meets still-weak West Virginia.

In the South, seventh-ranked Clemson, looking toward another Atlantic Coast Conference title after belting Wake Forest 28-7, plays Virginia Tech. The Dadds battle each other at Gainesville, Fla., where Coach Bobby Dodd's Georgia Tech team meets Florida, quarterbacked by his son, Bobby Jr. Both are undefeated in two games.

Tennessee meets Mississippi State and Alabama takes on Vanderbilt in conference games.

Missouri comes East to play Penn State after winning its first two. Notre Dame, loser the last two years to Purdue, goes after the Boilermakers at South Bend, Ind., in an intrastate battle Arkansas and Texas Christian also settle Southwest Conference title arguments quickly when they meet in Fort Worth. Air Force meets Stanford on the west coast.

Register Big Winners

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Racing Association said yesterday that, starting Monday, it will take names and addresses of big winners at the metropolitan race tracks.

The move is in accordance with a directive from the U.S. Treasury Department, which is seeking such information for income tax purposes.

Schoolteacher Fails to Bribe Oregon Back

By DICK PYLE

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—State police yesterday revealed that an unsuccessful attempt to bribe a star Oregon football player was made the day before the Michigan game here last Saturday.

Detective Lt. Carl Robinson of the state police racket squad said the attempt, involving a Brooklyn, N.Y., schoolteacher, and two unidentified gamblers, fell through because the player, halfback Mickey Bruce, told his coach.

Racket squad detectives arrested the schoolteacher, A. David Budin, 27, but charged him only with registering at a hotel under a false name, a misdemeanor.

The gamblers, apparently tipped off that police were on the case, vanished.

Budin pleaded guilty to the charge and paid a $100 fine and $10 costs.

Police said they might have pressed the bribery case if Leo Harris, Oregon athletic director, had been willing for Bruce to testify. Harris said he would refer the incident to the National College Athletic Association for investigation.

At the time of his arrest, Budin was carrying $1,100, which he said he intended to bet on Michigan.

Lt. Robinson quoted Budin as saying he didn't know the two gamblers by name but believed they were from Miami, Fla.

Robinson said Bruce was approached with the idea of playing poorly so Michigan would win the game by a certain number of points.

Bruce, 19, of San Diego, Calif., was a defensive standout in the game that Oregon lost 21-0 to Michigan. He also started Oregon on one of its few offensive drives of the game, intercepting a third-quarter pass.

the man around campus has a tan raincoat . . .

You'll find yours at Pennshire in longs - shorts and regulars for $12.95 or with zip-liner just $19.95.

Pennshire Clothes Inc.

204 W. College Ave.

The 'DEN'

. . . welcomes all returning alumni and extends to them a cordial invitation to try its blue-ribboned beverages and tasty fresh shrimp or clams as they return to the haunt of their past pleasures.

LION'S DEN

131 GARNER ST.

✓ CHECK

THE DOLLAR KORNER