

Nittany Booters Shutout By West Chester, 5-0

Eastern soccer champion West Chester hit fast and hard to down the Penn State booters, 5-0, Saturday at West Chester in a game played before an enthused crowd of 1000.

Led by their outstanding sophomore center-forward, Don Williams, the West Chester eleven scored twice in the first three minutes of play, went on to add another goal in the second quarter and capped the victory by scoring twice midway through the third quarter.

Williams, a 6-2, 190-pounder, took the opening kickoff and drove to the 30-yard mark, where he unleashed a bullet-like shot. The ball ended up high in the Lions' net, and the defending champs had their first goal of the 1960 season and a 1-0 lead with only a minute and a half gone.

One minute and 15 seconds later, the tricky sophomore took a pass 25 yards from the goal, and duplicated his earlier score.

Before the Lions knew what hit them, the score read 2-0 in West Chester's favor. However, the Lions recuperated from their initial shock and began to battle the Rams on even terms for the rest of the quarter.

Then with only six minutes remaining in the first half, a bad break abruptly ended State's rally. Again Williams did the damage. He kicked the ball toward the goal, and goalie Jim Gottschlinger called for the slow roller. Full-back John Miller got the signal too late, and the ball caromed off the junior's thigh and was deflected into the corner of the State net.

The third quarter was a stalemate with both teams sharing control of the ball.

Then in the middle of the last period, Bill Fulk booted two goals within five minutes to put the contest on ice for West Chester.

On the brighter side of things, Hosterman was pleased with the defensive play of Gene Raiford and Bill Rierson.

Raiford was moved up to half-back due to an injury to regular Ed Hebel, and he and Rierson broke up many West Chester scoring threats.

Lion Golfer Finishes 1st At Tourney

Penn State's John Morton shot a 78 to win individual honors at Princeton Saturday in the southern section of the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference fall golf tournament.

The Lions' four-man team of Morton, Bob Rutherford, Joe Bartko and Dennis Mayer finished second behind Navy in the team tourney.

Navy's winning score was 327, followed by Penn State (333), Princeton and St. Bonaventure (339) and Villanova (348).

Morton, along with Bartko and Rutherford, finished in the top 20 in individual competition.

Bartko shot a 79 to finish in a four-way tie for second. Rutherford wound up with an 85 and Maier a 91.

The northeastern section of the ECAC held its tournament at New Haven, Conn., at the same time the southern play-offs were being held at Princeton. The top 20 individuals in each section and the team winners will meet at New Haven Saturday for the ECAC title.

Bartko, a sophomore, was a pleasant surprise to Lion Coach Joe Boyle. He made the team by defeating Bob Swahn in a 36-hole playoff on the Nittany course. Swahn saw action with the varsity last year.

Rounding out the fraternity schedule, Phi Mu Delta dumped Omega Psi Phi, 6-0, and Delta Sigma Phi and Chi Phi won over Alpha Zeta and Alpha Tau Omega on first downs.

In independent action, the Waring Chargers opened the season on the right foot by downing the Stump Jumpers, 6-0. The winning score came on a 30-yard pass from Gene Edwards to Mike Yanegski.

In the two games rounding out the evening's play, the Labachi Club and Clearfield posted victories over Cumberland and the Coasters by first downs.

IM director Dutch Sykes announced that last Thursday's games which were postponed due to rain will be played this coming Friday at the original times scheduled.

Gordon Quits Tigers; Elliott Fired by KC

DETROIT (AP) — Joe Gordon left the Detroit Tigers high and dry yesterday by quitting as manager and the Kansas City Athletics said they would talk to him about succeeding the fired Bob Elliott.

The Athletics dismissed Elliott, their manager for only one season, a few hours after Gordon dropped his resignation bomb in the lap of Tiger President Bill Dewitt.

Parke Carroll, general manager of the Athletics, said he intends to discuss the Kansas City managerial job with Gordon during the World Series, starting tomorrow at Pittsburgh.

Dewitt, who swung a sensational managerial swap two months ago to bring Gordon to Detroit while sending Jimmie Dykes to manager Cleveland, said he knew nothing of Gordon's plan to quit until this morning.

"I explained to Dewitt," Carroll said, "that a Kansas City group is negotiating for the purchase of the club and it has been agreed that it will be consulted on certain matters relating to future plans."

Naturally the 1961 manager was discussed. Four or five men were mentioned who would be acceptable.

"Unknown to the Athletics, Gordon talked to a representative of the Kansas City group during Detroit's visit last weekend."

Earlier, Gordon denied that he was headed for Kansas City as manager.

"I have resigned at Detroit and am seeking employment," Gordon told newsmen in Canton, Ohio, after he fled Detroit, dodging a horde of newsmen en route. "No one has talked to be about Kansas City."

Robinson, Fullmer Fight Rescheduled

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Champion Gene Fullmer has a torn muscle in his right leg, forcing postponement of his fight with Sugar Ray Robinson for the NBA version of the middleweight boxing title.

The bout, scheduled for next Saturday in the sports arena, has been rescheduled for Dec. 3.

Fullmer hurt the plantaris muscle in his right calf during a workout last Saturday. At first it was thought to be merely a charley horse. Doctors examined it yesterday morning, and ordered him to rest.

He was limping badly, and said he was in pain, this morning.
