

University Readers Elect 12 Members

The University Readers Board has elected 12 students to participate in its programs for this year. Candidates were required to go through a preliminary period of weekly workshops before election to the group.

Those elected were David Atkinson, Janet Bayer, Helen Jewells, Sarah Layton, Jack Marino, Peggy Mitchell, Maureen O'Donnell, Barbara Jean Pace, Philip Weber, Suzanne Wertz and Arlene Weiner.

The University Readers will present their programs for students, State College residents and near-by community organizations. The dates of the programs will be announced later.

Student Tells Story--

(Continued from page two) Entire families (including grandparents, aunts, uncles, etc.) live together in units called "comm-pounds," Miss Jochem explained. A compound, usually found in the small villages and towns, is a circle of small huts centering about an open courtyard which serves as the cooking place for each household.

Howes to Continue Studies

Carroll Lee Howes, assistant professor of agricultural extension, has been granted an additional leave of absence to continue his graduate studies at the University of Wisconsin for another six months. He has been on leave since last February and will return to his duties at the University on Feb. 1, 1961.
