

Pitt, Lions to Meet In X-Country Battle

The Penn State cross country team will be looking for its second straight victory when it goes against Pittsburgh tomorrow on the Panther's home course.

To build themselves up for the tough Pitt course in Schenley Park, the Lions spent yesterday afternoon running the slopes at the Centre Hills Country Club.

Pitt suffered a big loss when Ron Rush graduated last June, but it didn't seem to hamper the Panthers in their opening win against Slippery Rock State Teachers College last week.

Rush, one of the Panthers' all-time great distance runners, had his best year against the Lions in 1958 when he beat Ed Moran, Fred Kerr, and Dick Engelbrink.

But last year he ran into trouble and finished fourth behind Engelbrink, Herm Weber, and Steve Moorhead.

However, Pittsburgh has a runner who could make the fans forget Rush. Harry Stokes, a sophomore, ran exceptionally well in his freshman year and is expected to be one of the top Panther harriers this season.

Against the Penn State frosh last year, Stokes placed second behind the Lions' Gerry Norman. Two seniors, co-captains Reed

Clarke and Bill Hinchberger, are the only letter-winners on Pitt's comparatively young team.

Last season Clarke and Hinchberger finished in a tie for eighth place in the State meet.

Rounding out Coach Carl Rees' team are junior Don Adams and sophomores Vance Carter, Jon Hart, Bob Tarkany, and Jon Towne.

After tomorrow's meet, the Lions return home for three straight against Michigan State, Navy and Manhattan.

Michigan State holds the NCAA cross country crown.

Tunney Winning Battle Against Overweight

LONDON (AP) — Gene Tunney—the man who twice defeated Jack Dempsey—said yesterday he's winning a long battle against overweight.

"But it's a real fight," said the former heavyweight boxing champion.

Talking to reporters during a short visit to London, Tunney added:

"I'm 63 now and I suppose I'm doing very well with my weight. I'm only 14 pounds heavier than when I was champion." Tunney weighed 189 when he defeated Dempsey in September, 1926.

SAE Wins, 6-3 In Final Stanza

Pi Kappa Phi nearly pulled the upset of the intramural football season last night, but Sigma Alpha Epsilon's Dick Miller intercepted a pass in the closing minute and then SAE scored a quick TD to win, 6-3.

SAE was runner-up in fraternity play last year.

Two early touchdowns by Ken Sullivan gave Delta Upsilon a lead, it never relinquished and last year's champions rolled to an impressive 25-7 triumph over Phi Kappa Tau.

Chick Young and Joe Thompson also scored for DU, while Bill Joyce hit for Phi Kappa Tau.

Delta Theta Sigma couldn't overcome an early deficit, and lost to Lambda Chi Alpha, 13-0.

Alpha Chi Rho evened its record at 1-1 by topping Beta Sigma Rho on first downs, 3-2, and Alpha Chi Sigma broke a scoreless tie in the final minute, defeating Theta Xi, 3-0.

In independent action, Delaware House squeezed by Erie, 7-6, despite a last-minute rally by the losers. Berks blanked Dauphin, 6-0, and Jordan did the same to Butternut House, 7-0.

Birch House won on a 43-yard field goal by Harold Stein. A shorter field goal by Bob Busey led Lebanon House to an identical 3-0 victory over Lycoming. Maple House topped Chestnut, 3-2, on downs.

Injuries Hamper State Soccermen

Injuries to key personnel continue to hamper Penn State's soccer team in its drive to get back on the winning track.

When the Lions go against Syracuse here Saturday they may be without the services of captain Wayne Rodgers for the second straight week.

Rodgers injured his left ankle in a practice session before the West Chester game last week and was forced to sit out the contest which the Lions lost, 5-0.

The senior fullback from Olney High School in Philadelphia, re-injured the same ankle this week and also twisted his left knee.

Rodgers isn't Hosterman's only worry. Sophomore halfback Jay Stormer is still battling shin splints and fullback Ken Link is hobbled by a bad leg.

Lion center-half Ed Hebel, who was kicked in the face in the West Chester game, will not see action this weekend, thus adding to Hosterman's woes.

Fever Sidelines Layne

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Bobby Layne, No. 1 quarterback of the National Football League's Pittsburgh Steelers, became ill yesterday and missed practice.
