

Spirit Makes Cadets Tough

(Continued from page one)
dets will be "as good as, if not better than Missouri."

"It seems impossible," Toretto said, "but this team appears to be even better conditioned than Army teams of the past."

Toretto added that the combination of conditioning and almost fanatical team spirit enabled Army to come from behind against Boston College and California.

But there was another important reason, namely quarterback Tom Blanda, who seems to have learned his lessons after understudying Joe Caldwell for the last two years.

The sharpshooting signalcaller has been superb this year and last weekend against Cal he put on one of the greatest individual performances in Army grid history.

The boyish-looking quarterback completed 13 of 15 passes and took the lead in the nation's aerial department.

Overall, he has completed 27 of 41 passes for 328 yards and four touchdowns.

Blanda directs a fleet backfield composed of George Kirschenbauer and Glen Adams at halfback and bruising Al Rushatz at fullback.

The Cadets use a straight-T with the lonely end and plenty of spreads.

Bob Fuellhart is the lonely end, but Toretto says Army has modified its offense and Fuellhart comes into the huddle this year. The other starting end will be co-captain Frank Gibson.

The Cadets use an unbalanced line and Gerry Clements at outside tackle and Clearfield's Dale Kuhns at inside tackle.

All-American candidate Al Vanderbush and senior Harry Miller get the call at guard with George Joulwan slated to start at center.

Engle has made a few changes in the State lineup in an effort to add some extra punch. Don Jonas, a powerful runner and one of State's best pass receivers replaces Eddie Caye at left half.

LION TACKLE CORPS—Penn State linemen (L-R) Stu Barber, Jim Smith, Charlie Sieminski and Gerry Farkas will see plenty of action in today's game with Army at Michie Stadium.

The other halfback will be steady Jim Kerr, Penn State's leading groundgainer this year.

Sam Sobczak, the DuBois battering ram, will start at fullback where he has done an outstanding job all season. Galen Hall will be the first unit quarterback.

Engle also has made some changes in the line.

Henry Oppermann, Penn State's leading pass receiver last year, draws the starting assignment at left end. He has been hampered by a bad knee, but the Lion captain says he feels fine and is in great shape.

Bob Mitinger, who seemed to be in most of the tackles in the Missouri game, will start at right end.

Jim Smith moves into the starting lineup at right tackle and Stew Barber holds down his customary left tackle spot. Barber may not play as much as usual today due to a sprained shoulder suffered against Missouri.

The guards will be Bill Popp and sophomore Joe Blasenstien. Jay Huffman will be at center.

GRID NOTES — The Lions made the trip to West Point by chartered plane and they will fly back after the game . . . Engle put his boys through a workout at Bear Mountain State Park today . . . They're quartered at the Bear Mountain Inn . . . The Penn State Blue Band will play at the game . . . Academy officials predict a full house . . . That would be a crowd of 27,000 . . . Army Halfback George Kirschenbauer is president of the class of 1962 . . . Bruce Heim of State College is the alternate unit lonely end for Army . . . Cadet quarterback Tom Blanda is the brother of George Blanda, former Chicago Bears' ace . . . George is with the Houston Oilers of the American League this year . . .

Ohio State Meets Illini In Top Battle

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Big Ten holds the nation's college football spotlight today when six of its seven unbeaten teams are paired against each other.

In addition, two other pairs of unbeaten teams, Air Force-Missouri, and Arkansas-Baylor, lock horns in a day that is going to settle the usual topsy-turvy picture prevalent so early in the season.

The top battle is between the teams ranked 4 and 5 in the current Associated Press poll, Illinois and Ohio State, which meet in Champaign, Ill.

The Illini, ranked fourth, have beaten Indiana, in a game that won't count in the Big Ten standings, and West Virginia. The fifth-ranked Bucks have not yielded a point in beating Southern Methodist and Southern California.

In another conference battle almost equally attractive, third-ranked Iowa (2-0) plays Michigan State, which has tied Pitt and defeated Michigan.

Purdue, ranked seventh, plays Wisconsin. Minnesota, the other unbeaten Big Ten eleven, meets Northwestern.

Top-ranked Syracuse gets a respite against two-time loser Holy Cross.

Air Force and Missouri both have won three games while Arkansas, ranked ninth with a 3-0 mark, tries to get a bigger jump in the Southwest Conference race against Baylor (2-0).

Three more of the top ten are busy in the South. Second-ranked Mississippi has a Southeastern Conference date against Vanderbilt while sixth-ranked Navy plays Southern Methodist in the Oyster Bowl at Norfolk, Va. Clemson, ranked eighth, plays Virginia, which has the nation's longest major college losing streak, 28.

Kansas (No. 10) meets potent Iowa State in a key Big Eight battle.

Stanford's passing whiz, Dick Norman, tries to stave off Washington's Huskies in the television game of the day beginning at 3:45 p.m. (EST) ABC-TV. Seven hours before this, Miami, Fla. and Pitt meet in Pittsburgh (9 a.m. EST) so as not to conflict with the World Series in New York.

Penn State Harriers Drub Panthers, 19-40

Special to the Collegian
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 7—The Penn State cross country team won its second straight meet of the season today by overwhelming the Pitt harriers, 19-40.

The Lions hill-and-dalers swept four of the first five places in notching their fifth consecutive win against the Panthers.

Herm Weber and Gerry Norman were the big guns for the Lions, tying for first place in 22:39.8 over the four-mile course.

Harry Stokes, the Panther's sophomore ace, made the best showing for Pittsburgh by taking third place in the time of 23:02. Stokes led for the first mile and a half, but Weber and Norman doggedly stayed behind him.

After three miles Stokes began to tire and Weber and Norman took the lead. The Lion duo ran step for step for the remaining mile and a quarter, finishing in a dead heat for the second straight week.

Finishing in a tie for fourth were State's Ernie Noll and Howie Deardorff. Their time was 23:11.

Welterweights Clash

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lightweight title contenders Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., and Len Matthews of Philadelphia step into the junior welterweight division tonight in a nationally televised fight at the Olympic Auditorium.

PARISH'S
MENS SHOP
Shortlidge Rd. at College Ave.
OPEN UNTIL 5:30 P.M.

Orange Seek Third Victory

Penn State's next opponent, Syracuse goes after win number three today at Worcester, Mass., against winless Holy Cross. The Lions play the Crusaders Nov. 12 at Worcester.

In other games involving Penn State opponents, Boston University entertains Ohio University. Illinois travels to Ohio State and West Virginia meets Richmond at Morgantown.

Pitt plays a morning game at Pitt Stadium today with Miami while Maryland meets North Carolina State at Raleigh, N.C.

Missouri, a 21-8 victor over the Lions last weekend, faces another stiff test in Denver, Colo., against the Air Force Academy.

Panthers Favored by 6 In Game with Miami

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The University of Pittsburgh, despite a winless record, is a one-touchdown favorite for its football game with Miami of Florida at Pitt Stadium today.

The intersectional clash, the sixth between the schools, is expected to draw some 27,000.

The Hurricanes hold a 3-2 edge in the series and won the last meeting in 1957, 28-13.

Syracuse leads Holy Cross in their football rivalry, with 12 victories to five for the Crusaders.

Pitt Tickets to Go On Sale

Tickets for the Pitt game will go on sale at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the ticket booth at New Beaver Field across from Rec Hall.

THETA PHI ALPHA
Says
BEAT 'EM, BUCS
A.I.

Pittsburgh, Chicago Get NBA Teams

NEW YORK (AP) — Chicago and Pittsburgh yesterday were granted franchises in the National Basketball Association beginning with the 1961-62 season. The addition of the two cities, franchise holders in the old Basketball Association of America, boosted the NBA's membership to 10 teams.

After awarding the new franchises, the NBA's board of governors also voted to boost each team's player squad.

Instead of being limited to 10 players, each team will be permitted to carry 12 until Dec. 15.

MUSIC
With the IVY ROCKS!
featured at
POLLOCK I
MUSIC 8-11
Sponsored by
Nittany and Pollock Councils