

Soccermen Score Early To Record 1st Victory

The Penn State booters scored three goals in three minutes during the first period Saturday and then coasted to a 3-0 win over Syracuse on Nittany Field.

The victory was the first for the Lions after two straight losses to Bucknell and West Chester. Syracuse is now 0-2.

Their other loss was to Cornell. This was a different Penn State team than the one that dropped its first two games in lopsided manner. The Lions outran their opponents with ease, and their passing was sharp for the first time this year.

State goalies Jim Gottschling and Dave Grubbs only had to make four saves, while the Lions took 54 stabs at the Orange nets.

Penn State kept the ball in Syracuse territory most of the first quarter with the Orange failing to get one shot at the Penn State goal.

Halfbacks Bill Rierson, Gene Raiford, and Jay Stormer continually set up the Lion attack by intercepting Syracuse passes before they got past midfield.

At 8:30 of the first period Howie Farrar took a pass from Stormer and scored the first Lion goal.

Stormer, awarded an indirect kick for a Syracuse penalty, hit Farrar 10 yards out on the right side of the Orange nets, and the Lion inside-left kicked a hard ground shot into the corner of goal. It was Farrar's fifth goal in two years against Syracuse.

State scored its second goal a minute later. Syracuse took the kickoff but the Lions immediately intercepted the ball.

Left wing Lou Van Rafelghem took a pass at midfield and outraced his defender deep into the left corner where he unleashed a shot that was slightly wide.

Alert Glenn Ream then came in from his outside-right position and banged the ball high into the net from four yards out and the Lions led, 2-0.

State scored its third goal seconds later when Syracuse goalie Manny Padron's kick glanced off a teammate's back and ricocheted into the Syracuse goal.

DAVE GRUBBS

State, now 1-2, will play Colgate next Saturday on Nittany Field. Following the game with the Red Raiders, the Lions will meet Maryland, Navy, Temple, Army and Pitt.

Sigma Nu's Stiff Defense Preserves 7-6 Victory

By BOB DEAN

Sigma Nu came on strong in the second half last night to edge Beta Theta Pi, 7-6, in IM football action.

Beta Theta Pi scored a fast touchdown in the opening minutes and it look as if the game might turn into a runaway. But Fred Wolff of Sigma Nu hit Fritz Crombie for a touchdown pass several minutes later and Ken Link booted the extra point to give Sigma Nu the win.

Alpha Sigma Phi scored two first half touchdowns and then held Acacia in the second half to win 13-0. Phi Kappa Sigma rolled over Sigma Alpha Mu, 41-0, with Al Lammey tossing four TD passes.

Angelo Paoletti of Westmoreland House, an all-Philadelphia schoolboy halfback for two years, teamed with Wendy Wear for an impressive 21-6 win over Cambria Touse.

Wear, two years an end on a New Jersey high school All-State team, pulled in two of Paoletti's passes and scampered for touchdowns.

Nittany 26 scored a last second touchdown on a pass from Charles Moore to Bob Peden to tie up its game with Nittany 37, 6-6, and then won on first downs, 3-1.

Bucks House played a fine defensive game and held on to defeat Centre House, 6-0. Bucks scored on the second play in the first half. In other independent action, Cottonwood House shut-out Sycamore House, 14-0, and Cedar House stopped Hickory House, 15-0.

Bartko Cops Third in ECAC

Penn State sophomore Jack Bartko finished third in the final play-off of the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference golf tournament at Yale Saturday.

Navy copped the team title by downing Hamilton College. Navy's score was 327 with Hamilton 2 strokes behind.

J. Faust Walker of Yale won the individual title with a 34-36 par 70. James Frick of Williams was second with 72. Bartko finished third in a field of 43 with a 74.

John Morton of Penn State, winner of the southern section playoff last week, finished in a tie for 11th with teammate Bob Rutherford, Morton and Rutherford shot 79.

"Morton got off to a bad start," Lion golf coach Joe Boyle said.

"He was six over par on the first four holes, but then he steadied down and played good golf the rest of the way."

Boyle said he wasn't surprised with Bartko's performance. "We really expected him to do very well," Boyle said. Bartko was teamed with Walker, who was playing on his home course.

"Two double bogies on the fourth and tenth holes by Bartko made the difference," Boyle said. "The Yale course is one of the toughest in the nation. Considering how little practice he had, Bartko played a terrific round."
