

Lion Scout Says Orange Will Be Ready for State

By SANDY PADWE

Frank Patrick, the Penn State bloodhound who has been scouting Syracuse for the past three weeks, admits that the Orange have been reading too many press clippings of late

But he warns, "you can bet they'll have it out of their systems by Saturday."

"They've been sluggish all right," he said, "but let me put it this way. I don't think they've played up to their capacity. Now that covers a multitude of sins, doesn't it?"

"Don't get me wrong, though. Syracuse is the same overpowering team that won the championship last year and we're not going to be able to make any mistakes against them."

Statistics prove Patrick's point. So far this season Syracuse has outgained its opponents on the ground, 858-147, and in the air, 222-138.

Ernie Davis, the All-American halfback who had a "bad" day in Syracuse's 15-6 squeaker over Holy Cross Saturday, is the top ground gainer with 304 yards in 36 carries, an average of 8.4 yards a carry.

Fullback Art Baker, selected on most pre-season All-American teams, is second in rushing with 176 yards in 37 carries.

By comparison, halfback Jim Kerr and fullback Sam Sobczak are Penn State's top ground gainers.

Kerr has picked up 178 yards in 33 carries while Sobczak has 113 yards in 30 outings.

State has the edge in passing. 271-222. Galen Hall has completed 17 passes in 30 attempts for 199 yards and two touchdowns while Dick Hoak has hit on 7 of 13 for 72 yards.

Dick Easterly is Syracuse's top passer with 8 of 11 for 144 yards. Dave Sarette, the first unit signalcaller has 11 of 26 for 83 yards and two touchdowns.

When Davis and Baker are in top form, it's hard to find a better one-two punch anywhere.

Davis, only a junior, was the nation's outstanding rookie back in 1959. He was 11th in rushing with 686 yards and he scored 10 touchdowns, five on runs of 57, 56, 50, 29, and 25 yards.

Baker, the hard-driving All-East fullback, runs the 100-yard dash in 10.1 and Schwartzwal-der says "we wouldn't trade him for anyone."

Sarette and Easterly give Syracuse a pair of fine quarterbacks who can give a team fits on the ground or in the air.

Last year Sarette played flawlessly against Penn State and led the Orange to their 20-18 win.

Halfbacks Pete Brokaw, John Mackey, and Mark Weber and fullback John Nichols also will see plenty of action against Penn State Saturday in Archbold Stadium.

Weber has been hobbled by a knee injury but when he's healthy he's one of Schwartzwalder's most feared backs.

Brokaw had been running with the first unit in Weber's absence, but he was dropped to the alternate unit in a general shakeup Monday.

If Weber's knee holds up he may be at halfback. If not, Schwartzwalder has one of his top sophomores, Mackey, on hand. Mackey is a speedster who runs the 100 in 10 flat.

Basketball Candidates

All candidates for the Penn State basketball team should report to coach John Egli in Rec. Hall at 6:00 Monday night.

All freshman candidates should report to coach Wally Colender at 4:00 p.m. Monday afternoon.

Syracuse Picked To Beat Lions, 14-8

By WILL GRIMSLEY

PITTSBURGH (AP) — They say complacency has set in at Syracuse and Mississippi and the two powers are ripe for plucking. But these two teams still have the horses—and races go to the swift.

So we spurn the heady wine of upstetitis and pick up Orangemen and Ole Miss to win their tough assignments of the week. Last week's score: 38-12 for 760.

Mississippi 24, Tulane 12: The nation's No. 1 team has too much raw speed for the Greenies.

Syracuse 14, Penn State 8: Orangemen are determined to win back their No. 1 rating.

UCLA 20, Washington 14: Huskies aren't the same team which won in the Rose Bowl.

Tennessee 7, Alabama 0: Sounds of bones cracking will be heard throughout the Tennessee Valley.

Ohio State 18, Purdue 7: Buckeyes are as imaginative and subtle as a sledge hammer blow in the face.

Texas 24, Arkansas 14: Longhorns still riding the wave of their Oklahoma victory. Pittsburgh 23, West Virginia 7: Panthers are much too powerful in this traditional head-knocker. Navy 21, Air Force 7: Falcons don't have a home run hitter to match Navy's Joe Bellino. Iowa 18, Wisconsin 14: Hawkeyes may be the best college football team in the country. Army 14, Nebraska 0: Cadets bound back from Penn State defeat.
