

Ford Evens Series With 12-0 Shutout

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Chucky Whitey Ford squared the World Series with his second straight shutout of Pittsburgh yesterday, 12-0, while Bobby Richardson and his New York Yankee mates scrambled the record book during a 17-hit romp in the sixth game.

The left-handed ace of Manager Casey Stengel's staff joined ex-Yankees Red Ruffing and Alie Reynolds as the winners of the most Series games, seven, as he sent this Series into a seventh game today.

Ford, working with three days rest, blanked the National League champions, 10-0, in the third game Saturday.

Richardson became the runs batted in champion of all Series history. The YMCA secretary from Sumter, S.C., boosted his total to 12 RBI, by knocking in three with a pair of triples.

The stunned crowd of 38,580 fans, many of whom had watched the Pirates absorb a 16-3 pasting yesterday the unconditional release of catcher Stan Lopata.

Thursday, wondered if they should believe what they read about the Bucs' success in the big city last weekend where they won two of three.

When the computing staff finished, they found the Yanks already had scored more runs, 46, and collected more hits, 78, than any other Series team. And they still have one more game to go today at Forbes Field, where they will face Vern Law, the Pirates' 20-game winner. Law already has beaten them twice with help from little Elroy Face.

Stengel said he would start either Bill Stafford, 22-year-old rookie who pitched five scoreless innings in relief Monday, or Bob Turley, big right-hander who won that 16-3 second game last week.

This was the most lopsided shutout in the long history of Series competition, topping the 11-0 romp by the Chicago White Sox over Los Angeles in the first game last October and the St. Louis Cardinals against Detroit in the last game in 1934.

Braves Release Lopata

MILWAUKEE (AP) — General manager John McHale of the Milwaukee Braves announced yesterday the unconditional release of catcher Stan Lopata.

DU, SAE Win, Streaks Intact

Delta Upsilon and Sigma Alpha Epsilon kept their undefeated streaks alive in intramural football last night by rolling to shut-out victories.

SAE topped Beta Sigma Rho on a safety, 2-0, and DU rolled over Phi Kappa Psi, 14-0. It was the third win for both teams.

Ken Sullivan and Bill Simon divided the touchdown duties for DU, while Chick Young added two extra points on placements.

Gene Flick handled the heavy work as Tau Kappa Epsilon blanked Zeta Beta Tau, 7-0. Flick's first half touchdown climaxed a drive which started when he intercepted a ZBT aerial on TKE's 25-yard line.

Lambda Chi Alpha withstood a last minute drive by Phi Kappa Tau to preserve a 7-0 victory on the strength of Don Kemmerer's six-pointer.

Nittany area teams dominated independent action. Nittany 25 won over Nittany 34, 4-3, on first downs. Nittany 23 won by forfeit over Nittany 35, and Nittany 27 shutout Nittany 33 by a 7-0 count. Jay Robins scored and converted for Nittany 27.

How does it feel to play against the powerful Syracuse football team? "It's like trying to push a 2 1/2-ton truck up a hill," says Kansas football coach Jack Mitchell.
