

Schwartzwalder Has Worries

convincing win over Army," bold Ben said. "And don't forget that Army is always tough."

Penn State won't be Schwartzwalder's only worry Saturday. There's a bad epidemic of complacency around Piety Hill and the 1959 coach-of-the-year says it has affected nearly everyone on his team.

Earlier this week Schwartzwalder told a group of writers that too many of his boys have been concentrating on their press clippings and not on football. So he said there would be some changes in the starting lineup for the Penn State game.

If Schwartzwalder carries out his threats such stars as center and tri-captain Al Bemiller will be on the bench along with end Ken Ericson and halfback Pete Brokaw.

Bob Stem, who was a defensive specialist last year, will take Bemiller's place and Norm Lemieux moves into Ericson's spot. Mark Weber, who missed the first three games due to a knee injury, gets his first chance to start in place of Brokaw.

He'll probably play just on defense with sophomore running star John Mackey working with the offensive unit.

The rest of Syracuse's starting backfield finds All-Americans Ernie Davis and Art Baker at halfback and fullback respectively and Dave Sarette at quarterback.

Dick Easterly will run Syracuse's second unit backfield and most observers feel he's Sarette's equal.

All-American Fred Mautino joins Lemieux at end, and Fred's brother Lou will start at outside tackle offensively for the Orange.

Soph Dave Meggyesy will spell Mautino on defense.

Mautino and Meggyesy are replacing John Brown who injured his knee in the Holy Cross game.

The inside tackle will be big Tom Gilburg (230), one of the top punters in the nation. He has an average of 42 yards per punt.

The guards on Schwartzwalder's unbalanced line are Bruce Tarbox and Dick Feidler.

Engle, going on the assumption that it's foolish to break up a winning combination, has made no lineup changes for the big Eastern grid battle.

Art Baker . . . All-American fullback

Hall will call the signals for the first unit and he'll have Kerr and Don Jonas at halfback and Sam Sobczak at fullback.

Jonas, an excellent passer and runner, could turn out to be one of the most important factors in Penn State's favor tomorrow because it is rumored that Engle has built some wide-open plays around the versatile junior from Scranton, Pa.

Captain Henry Oppermann and veteran Bob Mitinger will start at end, with Jim Smith and Steve Barber at tackle.

Bill Popp and Joe Elasenstien are the guards with Jay Huffman at center.

State will be without the sensational Roger Kochman who almost won the game for the Lions singlehandedly last year.

Kochman, out for the season with a knee injury, scored Penn State's first touchdown against the Orange in 1959 on a 17-yard run, and then he put State back in the game with an electrifying 100-yard kickoff return in the fourth quarter.

Game time tomorrow is 1:30. Gene Kelly and Tom Bender will broadcast the play by play to University Park.

Mountaineers Try For Panther Upset

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The West Virginia University football team, hoping for an upset, tangles with a highly-favored University of Pittsburgh team at Pitt Stadium today.

A crowd of about 26,000 is expected for the game, which will be played under partly cloudy skies with a chance of occasional showers.

Some 5000 West Virginia rooters, mindful of the many upsets in the long string of annual games between the rivals, will be on hand to cheer the Mountaineers.

In the past eight games between the two teams, the underdogs have won six times. Only last season, a fired-up West Virginia squad knocked the Panthers out of a possible bowl bid with a 23-15 victory.

Moyer Rated Favorite In Fight With Fernandez

NEW YORK (AP) — Denny Moyer, welterweight contender from Portland, Ore., was rated a 2-1 favorite to beat aggressive Jorge Fernandez of Argentina in the television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Conqueror of welterweight champion Benny (Kid) Paret in a non-title fight last August, the 21-year-old Moyer figures to be too fast and clever for the left-hooking specialist from Buenos Aires.

The 25-year-old South American is confident he can slow down his rival with body barrages.

'S' Club Meeting

The Varsity 'S' Club will meet at 10 p.m. tomorrow at Alpha Gamma Rho for the purpose of initiations. President Dick Campbell urges all members to attend.

Murtaugh Named Manager of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Danny Murtaugh, the leader of Pittsburgh's first world championship team in 35 years, yesterday was named National League Manager of the Year for 1960 in the annual Associated Press poll.

Murtaugh scored a clear victory over Solly Hemus of the St. Louis Cards in the balloting by 193 baseball writers. The Pirates' pilot received 127 votes while Hemus collected the remaining 66.

Murtaugh's 1960 Pirates were tabbed for fourth place in The Associated Press pre-season poll. However, with help from a sustained batting attack which made effective use of the hit-and-run, a tight defense and good pitching, Murtaugh brought his club home seven games ahead of the Milwaukee Braves.

Gold Cup Field Named

CHICAGO (AP) — A field of nine was named for the $100,000 Gold Cup at Hawthorne today and the threat of an "off" track enhanced the chances of a wide open race.

Orange Point For Top Spot

By The Associated Press
Iowa, Ohio State and Syracuse, each vowing to knock Mississippi out of its No. 1 spot among the nation's college football teams, are going to be hard-pressed to make the promise stick today.

Even Ole Miss, ranked first in The Associated Press weekly football poll, is going to have a tough time staying up there as the football picture shifts from the mad-cap intersectional pattern of the last four Saturdays into conference and sectional struggles.

Mississippi, undefeated in four games, also tries to stay on top in the Southeastern Conference while Ohio State and Iowa battle for the lead in the Big Ten. Syracuse looks to improve a shaky reputation as the East's top independent.

Ole Miss, which has scored 120 points under quarterback Jake Gibbs and Co., meets Tulane, which has allowed three opponents only 20 in compiling a 1-1-1 record. Mississippi is 2-0 in SEC play, closely pursued by Alabama, 2-0-1, and Florida, 1-0. Bama meets rugged Tennessee and Florida plays Vanderbilt.

This is the B-52. Advanced as it may be, this airplane has one thing in common with the first war-galleys of ancient Egypt... and with the air and space vehicles of the future. Someone must chart its course. Someone must navigate it.

For certain young men this presents a career of real executive opportunity. Here, perhaps you will have the chance to master a profession full of meaning, excitement and rewards... as a Navigator in the U. S. Air Force.

To qualify for Navigator training as an Aviation Cadet you must be an American citizen between 19 and 26½—single, healthy and intelligent. A high school diploma is required, but some college is highly desirable. Successful completion of the training program leads to a commission as a Second Lieutenant... and your Navigator wings.

If you think you have what it takes to measure up to the Aviation Cadet Program for Navigator training, see your local Air Force Recruiter. Or clip and mail this coupon.

There's a place for tomorrow's leaders on the Aerospace Team.

Navy Plebes Down Nittany Frosh, 22-7

Special to the Collegian
ANNAPOLIS, Oct. 14—The Navy plebes gained revenge for last year's 10-8 loss to the Penn State freshmen by rolling to a 22-7 victory over the Lion cubs today.

Coach Earl Bruce's eleven had three drives stopped by timely Navy interceptions. A backfield-in-motion penalty averted another Lion score from the one-yard line.

"We played a much better game today than against West Virginia," Bruce said in the locker room. "We had a couple of tough breaks and the loss of Urbanik (Tom) hurt us."

The blockbuster from Donora was injured in the first series of plays and had to be removed from the game. It is believed he suffered a shoulder separation.

The Lions suffered another setback when starting quarterback Frank Potter injured his knee and had to be helped from the field.

Bruce expressed satisfaction with the line play, and said that ends John Diebert and Bill Lezinski were much improved over the opening victory against the Mountie frosh.

After a scoreless first quarter, Navy pushed over two scores in the second period to Penn State's one and the midshipmen were off and running toward their second straight win of the season.

The first Navy tally was set up when the middies recovered a Don Caum fumble on the State 45. The TD came on a short pass from Bob Sutton to Nick Markoff. The extra point try failed.

Navy scored again later in the period when Buddy Coleman hit Steve Roesinger in the end zone with a 20-yard aerial. This time Sutton hit John Berger with a short flip for 2 points.

The Lions roared right back for a score with the big gainer a 35-yard burst up the middle by fullback Jim Jones. Quarterback Ron Coates fired a 16-yard pass to Gary Wydman for the TD. Caum's conversion kick was good and the Lions were behind by only seven.

Neither team could move the ball in the third quarter but the middies again began rolling in the last period.

Sutton capped a drive into State territory by hitting Markoff with an 18-yard TD pass for an insurance tally.
