

Thousands Cheer As Kennedy Speaks At Johnstown Rally

By JERRIE MARKOS

A motorcade of nearly 300 University students joined cheering thousands who came to see and hear Sen. John F. Kennedy, Democratic presidential nominee, Saturday in Johnstown.

Because of the almost uncontrollable crowd, the presentation of a replica of the Nittany Lion had to be made to the Senator at his hotel. Sandra Goldberg, junior in secondary education from Harrisburg, represented the University in the short ceremony before Kennedy's main address.

Before Kennedy's arrival, the entrance of the Fort Stanwix Hotel, where he stayed was jammed with college students, housewives, children and businessmen wearing campaign buttons and skimmer-type hats banded with a red, white and blue "Kennedy."

Kennedy

In preparation for the address, 400 Kennedy girls in white blazers and dark skirts lined the center aisle on the main floor of the Cambria County War Memorial where Kennedy spoke.

Other students from neighboring colleges paraded before the crowded bleachers with banners pledging their votes for the Senator.

In his 20-minute speech,

Kennedy touched on housing, education and medical aid for the aged. Cheers echoed throughout the stadium as he repeated a statement he said Vice President Nixon made, that, "four and one-half million unemployed isn't significant."

Kennedy dared the Republican contender to repeat that statement next week when he is scheduled to appear in Johnstown, which Kennedy termed "economically depressed."

On the Quemoy-Matsu issue, Kennedy said, "I think it is in the best interest of national security that Mr. Nixon has now retreated to the Administration's view on Quemoy-Matsu, as contained in the 1955 treaty and resolution which I have supported ever since. Perhaps it was Mr. Nixon's position all along, also, and he was merely misunderstood to be extending our treaty obligations."

Kennedy's manner was far from mild when he blasted the administration's policies on Cuba and Latin America. He charged the party in power with neglecting our southern neighbors, citing the fact that "in the last eight years no Voice of America program has been broadcast to this area."

Kennedy continued, "Mr. Nixon hasn't mentioned Cuba very prominently in this campaign. He talks about standing firm in the Far East, standing firm in Berlin and standing up to Khrushchev. But he never mentions standing firm in Cuba — and if you can't stand up to Castro, how can you be expected to stand up to Khrushchev?"

Willard to Speak in ME

Dr. Mary Willard will speak at 7 p.m. tomorrow in 105 Mechanical Engineering at the first meeting of the Student affiliate of the American Chemical Society.

Four BusAd Profs Attend Convention

Four faculty members in the Department of Accounting and Business Statistics attended the recent meetings of the American Accounting Association at Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio.

They are Charles J. Rowland, professor emeritus of accounting; Dr. William J. Schrader, associate professor of accounting; Ted M. Rabun, assistant professor of accounting; and A. Jay Hursch, lecturer in accounting.

The association is composed primarily of instructors in accounting but also includes others interested in accounting study, research and publication.

Slavic Club Meets Tonight

The first meeting of the Slavic Club will be held at 7:30 tonight in 303 Willard. Color slides of Russian scenes will be featured.

SGA Forms Available

Anyone interested in applying for the Student Government Elections Committee may obtain application forms at the Hetzel Union desk.

The Committee handles the fall and spring SGA elections and supervises political nominations and elections in general.

Local Ad Staff

NO meeting tonight—possibly later in the week—watch for announcement. The new rate cards are in—pick them up as soon as possible. Place lineage total for last week in my mailbox for Free Pizza. We will have refreshments at next meeting.

ENDS TODAY -- "All The Fine Young Cannibals"

A STANLEY-WARNER THEATRE CATHAUM

● BEGINS WEDNESDAY ●

FEATURETIME: 1:59, 3:52, 5:45, 7:38, 9:31

"THE BRIGHTEST, LIVELIEST COMEDY THIS YEAR!"

"Peter Sellers is side-splittingly funny!"

—Bosley Crowther, N.Y. Times

"You will not find anything around much funnier than 'I'm All Right, Jack'. The high point of movie comedy reached so far this year!"

—Paul V. Beckley, Herald Tribune

"Consistently higher, lighter and brighter than any film in recent years!"

—Archer Winsten, N.Y. Post

"Rib-tickling comedy!"

—Kate Cameron, Daily News

"It'll leave you limp from laughter!"

—Justin Gilbert, Mirror

"Hilarious! One of the happiest movies in town!"

—Alton Cook, World Telegram

"Another Best-Sellers!"

—Rose Pelswick, Journal American

'I'M ALL RIGHT JACK'

Winner of 2 British Academy Awards

Starring PETER SELLERS

If you should meet Paula White, above, a third semester Tri Delt, you too would agree that she is possessed with a wondrous radiance.

Having worked (that's the wrong term) with the Kappas last week we must mention that contrary to popular rumor, there are some fascinating eye-fuls there. Perhaps it sounds biased to give so much credit to one group but we couldn't fight the facts. One fact being that these girls are an absolute pleasure to work with. The only thing wrong with them is that they know they're Kappas.

With a small degree of reticence I've accepted a "judgeship" for Jr. Prom Queen. The reticence is in knowing that choosing the most beautiful candidate is hopeless if we are to judge on faces only. The face is rarely the prime requisite for "beauty." It starts with the sole (not all possess one) of a woman and ends at the face. Nevertheless, a more valid basis for selection will exist if some time is given for us to better know the candidate. Of course, it will never happen but wouldn't it be ideal to judge by conversing with the candidates while blindfolded we judges be? Or cover the candidates face that we may see no more than her eyes . . . the eyes can reveal the woman.

Some of the girls with whom it gave us great pleasure to work with this past week were Judy Bogar, Sue Schmidt, Carol Tison and a dozen or so Kappas whose names we'll mention later.

—bill coleman

STATE NOW

FOR THE LOVE OF MIKE

plus

BOBBI KINS

★

Starlite Drive-In Theatre

Benner Pike Between State College & Bellefonte

● LAST TIMES TONITE ●

'Tammy & the Bachelor'

Debbie Reynolds
Feature at 7:30

also

"Joe Butterfly"

Audie Murphy
George Nader
Feature at 9:20

NOW AT 4:15, 6:13, 8:11, 10:09 -- "JUNGLE CAT"

NITTANY

BEGINS WEDNESDAY — Doors Open 6:45

THE NEW HIGH AND MIGHTY ADVENTURE THRILLER!

THE CROWDED SKY

starring DANA ANDREWS · RHONDA FLEMING

EUREM ZIMBALIST, JR · JOHN KERR · ANNE FRANCIS · KEENAN WYNN

and TROY DONAHUE From WARNER BROS. TECHNICOLOR