AN OPEN LETTER TO OUR MANY FRIENDS:
 DEAR FRIENDS:

After a vacation of several weeks, we are pleased to announce the FALL RE-OPENING of our newest and most widely acclaimed department . . . THE BOOK CELLAR . . . home of one of the largest and most complete selections of paperback books in the East.

For those of you who visited with us following our grand opening last May we have exciting news. In addition to re-stocking the titles you so readily accepted this summer, we have added well over 1500 new titles to our expanded shelves. Covering the fields from music to mythology, baby names to bacteriology, we are more confident than ever that you'll be able to find exactly the book (s) you want when you visit THE BOOK CELLAR.

To those newcomers who have not yet had the pleasure of browsing through the more than 3500 titles available in THE BOOK CELLAR well, all we can say is, that you'll really be pleased with the completeness and accessibility of everything that's first and finest in the paperback field. All books are now classified and shelved under the specific subject matter to which they belong—science, literature, history, religion, home and family—to name only a few. They're all easy-to-find, and in THE BOOK CELLAR awaiting your visit at our grand re-opening October 21, 1960.

Sincerely yours,
 The Book Seller
