

Councils to Hold Contest, Lecture

A lecture series titled "Introducing the Liberal Arts College" will open on Dec. 6 with a talk by Dr. Henry A. Finch, professor of philosophy, on Aesop's fables, Francine Garfinkle, chairman of the Liberal Arts Student Council lecture committee, announced at a meeting last night.

The series will consist of at least one lecture each month by a liberal arts professor, Miss Garfinkle said and plans are being made to have each lecture co-sponsored by the club associated with the topic of the talk.

In a report on the possibility of a junior studying abroad, Barbara Hackman quoted Howard A. Cutler, assistant to the vice president for academic affairs, as saying that such an opportunity does exist for liberal arts students.

Application blanks for the Miss Agriculture Contest sponsored by the Agriculture Student Council in conjunction with the annual Ag Hill Party are available at the Hetzel Union desk.

Lawrence Beaver, reporting on the Ag Hill Party last night at a council meeting, said that each candidate must be at least a second semester coed in agriculture and not more than sixth semester.
