By JIM BUKATA

AL to Discuss Expansion Vote

NEW YORK (AP) — The American League executives will meet here today to discuss action on its approved vote to expand to 10 teams for the 1962 season.

President Joe Cronin's circuit faces a much more difficult problem than did its older rival, the National League nine days ago when it swiftly grabbed Houston and New York in making the first expansion move in 62 years.

While the National had only two cities in mind, the American is undecided which two to choose from among Dallas-Ft. Worth, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Los Angeles and Toronto. Other applicants for the ninth and 10th franchises include Buffalo, Oakland, Seattle, San Diego and Denver.

Florida Trip

Penn State will inaugurate football relations with Miami of Florida next season. The night game will be played in Miami's Orange Bowl.

Towering Tackle

Penn State tackle Charlie Sieminski stands 6-5 and weighs 240 pounds. The Swoyerville sophomore is the biggest player on the squad.

Flat-Footed Halfback

Because of broken arches, Jim Kerr, Penn State halfback, must practice all week in special elevator shoes. He reverts to regular grid shoes on game day only.
