

Undefeated Harriers Test Navy Today

By BILL BARBER
Only two hurdles remain in Penn State's path en route to an undefeated cross country campaign.

One of them, Navy, will provide the opposition for the Lions today at 4:30 p.m. on the University Golf Course.

Penn State's 4-0 record speaks for itself and the 23-34 slashing of defending NCAA champ Michigan State was no fluke.

The Lions are rated as the team to beat in the East this year and they'll be out to prove it against the Middies who have a 3-2 record.

"Everything has been going better in the past two weeks. We're running faster and looking better all around," Lion coach Chick Werner said yesterday.

Werner will go with the same squad that swept West Virginia from the field last Friday, 15-50.

Captain Herm Weber will lead the Nittany Lions in the attempt for their fifth straight victory.

Howie Deardorff

Weber opened his varsity career at Penn State in 1958 by tying for first against Navy. But in 1959 he had to settle for second behind one of the Middie's all-time greats, Bob Kunkle.

This year, Weber is off to a great start. Going into the second half of the season, the Lion captain has recorded three firsts, and a fourth against Michigan State.

Steve Moorhead, who owns a record of two firsts, a second and a tenth for the season, also will be out to improve his standing over last year's performance against Navy when he finished fourth.

Sophomore star Gerry Norman will be shooting for his ninth straight first place against the Middies today.

Norman has been the big ace for the Lions all season, finishing in ties for first against Cornell, Pitt, and West Virginia. He came home first all alone in the Michigan State meet.

The trio of Dennie Johnson, Ernie Noll, and Howie Deardorff give the Lions needed team depth.

Mike Miller, Lionel Bassett, Dave LaHoff, Fred Larson, Walt Miller, and Herb Carver round out the Lion lineup:

Kessler's Run Wins for AZ

Dick Kessler's 40-yard jaunt around end in the last minute of play gave Alpha Zeta a 6-0 win over Pi Kappa Alpha in IM football last night.

Kessler was forced to run when he was trapped while fading back to pass. His end sweep was one of the few TD's scored on runs in IM ball this year.

In other action, Phi Sigma Kappa and Kappa Sigma held on to defeat their opponents in hard-fought defensive games.

Phi Sigma Kappa stopped Phi Sigma Upsilon the entire second half to win 7-0, while Kappa Sigma downed Sigma Pi, 2-0, after Kappa Sigma's Ed Schmidt caught John Zerbe in the end zone.

Sigma Chi rounded out fraternity competition with an easy 16-7 win over Phi Sigma Delta. George Saba passed for two of Sigma Chi's tallies, while Mike Stefanik added three more points with a 20-yard field goal.

Unbeaten Nittany 25 and Nittany 32 battled to a 2-2 first down tie at the end of regulation time. Nittany 25 won in the overtime period.

Two other independent games were decided by first downs. Nittany 24 won, 1-0, over Nittany 33, while Nittany 23 held Nittany 40 to win, 4-3.

Frosh Booters, Harriers Will Meet Midshipmen

The freshman soccer and cross country squads will meet the Navy plebes today at Annapolis, Md.

The frosh booters, sporting a 2-0-1 record, hope to get back on the victory trail again after tying Ogontz Center last Saturday. The booters own victories over Lock Haven and Bucknell.

The freshman harriers have found the going a little tougher this year, and are still looking for their first victory after dropping meets to Cornell and Pitt.

Frosh Gridders Play Pitt

The Penn State freshman football team will close out its season today against the Pitt frosh in Pittsburgh.

The Panthers are undefeated with a 3-0 record while the Lion Cubs go into the skirmish with a 1-2 log.

LUCKY STRIKE PRESENTS:
DEAR DR. FROOD:
DR. FROOD'S THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Early to bed and early to rise is an excellent way to avoid people.

Dear Dr. Frood: What should I look for first when I look for a wife?
Searching
DEAR SEARCHING: Her husband.

Dear Dr. Frood: Our son has been in college three months, and we haven't heard a word from him. Not even a post card. I don't want him to think I am too demanding or overprotective, but frankly I am worried. What should I do?
Worried Mother
DEAR WORRIED: Why worry after only three months in college? He's still learning how to write.

Dear Dr. Frood: I am six foot five, 225 pounds, handsome, tanned, muscled, a good athlete. But I can't get along with girls because I can never think of anything to say. What do you suggest?
Brawny
DEAR BRAWNY: "Me Tarzan, you Jane."

Dear Dr. Frood: Don't you agree that every college man has the right, in fact, the duty, to stand up and speak out for the things he believes in? Tomorrow I am going straight to the college president and tell him, politely but firmly, what is wrong here—the inferior teaching, the second-rate accommodations, the bad food. My friends think I am wrong to do this. What do you think?
Determined
DEAR DETERMINED: I applaud your spirit, young man! Had I been able, I would have commended you in a more personal letter. However, you forgot to leave a forwarding address.

Dear Dr. Frood: I am puzzled by the Lucky Strike slogan: "Remember how great cigarettes used to taste? Luckies still do." I've been sitting here for hours, thinking, thinking, thinking, but for the life of me I can't remember. What should I do about this?
Forgetful
DEAR FORGETFUL: I suggest you lean back, relax, and light up a Lucky Strike. I'm sure it will all come back to you—who you are, what you were, where you lived, everything.

FROOD FAD SWEEPS COLLEGES! They laughed when Dr. Frood started the new college craze of enjoying a Lucky while hanging from a coat rack. But now everybody is doing it! Smoking Luckies, that is. Today college students smoke more Luckies than any other regular. Reason: With or without coat rack, Luckies deliver the greatest taste in smoking today.
