

Lions Hand Mounties 6th Loss

(Continued from page one) cule broke loose on runs of 18 and 25 yards in the second quarter to set up Penn State's third touchdown.

Gursky, who scored the touchdown a few minutes later, finished the afternoon with 51 yards rushing to tie Hoak for runner-up honors.

"Our first two teams played well," Engle said "but the alternate backfield seemed to have a little more fire. They picked up the offense when it seemed to be lagging."

The combination of Penn State's high-powered ground attack and vicious line play was just too much for the Mountaineers who now have lost six games and tied one.

The Lions dominated play from the outset, rolling up 339 yards on the ground to 58 for Gene Corum's sophomore stocked Mountaineers.

However, the Mountaineers had the edge in passing, 207-115, but the Lions and Hoak made their count.

After Penn State's initial drive had ended with a wild pitchout on the West Virginia seven, the Mounties took over but couldn't move the ball.

The Lions then took the pigskin on the West Virginia 48 and moved it to the 31 in four plays.

On third down, Hoak dropped back and tossed a short pass to end Dave Truitt who took it on the 20 and dashed into the endzone for Penn State's first score.

Captain Henry Oppermann booted the extra point to make it 7-0, State.

State's next drive began when Gursky intercepted a Dale Evans pass on the Penn State 14.

After two plays, the first unit came into the game and Galen Hall's wrecking crew marched 82 yards in 10 plays with Sam Sobczak going three yards through the middle for the score.

Hall passed to halfback Jim Kerr for the two-point conversion and the Lions were ahead, 15-0, with three minutes gone in the second quarter.

Shortly before the end of the half, Gursky ended a 91-yard march when he scored from the one to give the Lions a 21-0 half-time lead.

The Lions didn't let up in the second half and they added their final two touchdowns during the last three minutes of the third quarter.

Hoak was involved in both scoring plays. He made it 27-0 at 11:40 when he kept the ball and simply hurdled over the Mountie defensive line from the three. The extra point attempt failed.

With 1:58 left in the quarter, guard Dave Robinson recovered a Jim Bargeleh fumble on the Mountie 17.

On the next play, Hoak hit his cousin, fullback Bud Torris, on the two and Torris went the short distance for the TD. Oppermann kicked the extra point and the Lions were on top, 34-0.

With the game out of reach, Corum sent his third string quarterback — Larry Tracewell —

CLOSING IN—West Virginia's Bob Benke (35) closes in on Penn State quarterback Dick Hoak (23). Benke nailed Hoak after the Lion senior had picked up four yards in the second quarter of Penn State-West Virginia game Saturday. The Lions won, 34-13.

into the game and the Mounties started to move.

Tracewell's pin-point passes and short gains moved the Mounties 68 yards for their first score. Tracewell scored from the one and Bob Lively kicked the extra point to make it 34-7.

Later in the last period, Tracewell took advantage of a pass interception and engineered the Mounties to the Penn State 11 where he found halfback Marvin Sleith waiting with open arms in the endzone.

Robinson blocked the extra point and the game ended with Penn State ahead, 34-13.

The 27th meeting between the two teams was marred by two severe leg injuries.

Penn State end John Bozick broke his left leg just above the ankle in the first period and Mountie center John Skinner broke his ankle later in the game. Bozick was taken to Geisinger Memorial Hospital in Danville for treatment but Skinner went back to Morgantown on the bus with the West Virginia team.

UP AND OVER goes Penn State quarterback Dick Hoak (23) for a touchdown in the third quarter of Saturday's Penn State-West Virginia game at Beaver Stadium. Hoak's dive from the three-yard line was one of three touchdown plays he was involved in as the Lions won, 34-13.
