

BusAd Council To Give Award

The Business Administration Council will award $100 this semester to a student in the college in recognition of his scholarship and service.

To be eligible for this award, the applicant must be of at least fifth semester standing, enrolled in the College of Business Administration and have a minimum 3.00 All-University average, the council decided at a meeting last night.

The winner will be selected by a point system whereby each activity of the applicant will count a certain number of points. These points will be added to the applicant's average, and the student with the highest number of points will receive the award, Lawrence Abrams, council president, said.

Peabody Speech, Dem Rally Moved To Parking Lot

The large crowd anticipated for the speech of Endicott Peabody, Democratic candidate for governor of Massachusetts, has necessitated a change in location for the speech, according to John Bonella, chairman of the Young Democrats.

Bonella said last night that Peabody will speak from the parking lot in the campus shopping center located at Shortlidge Rd. and College Ave. at 12:15 p.m. Thursday afternoon instead of from the Hetzel Union ballroom as previously announced.

The State Democratic organization will send a speaker truck to State College and surrounding areas Thursday morning to inform voters and students of the Democratic rally at which Peabody will speak, Bonella added.

Pennsylvania State University was chartered in 1855 as the Farmer's High School of Pennsylvania, and had enrolled in 1859, 119 male students.
