

Student Gets Suspended Suspension

A third semester student was placed on suspended suspension by the Senate Subcommittee on discipline, Leroy S. Austin, associate dean of men, said Wednesday.

The student, whose misbehavior in his living unit had been disturbing to the other members in the residence hall, Austin said, was warned either this semester by the coordinator of the area.

Repeated misbehavior on the part of the student 'hen came to the attention of the North Halls' tribunal which recommended that he be suspended from the University for one week.

Any recommendation for suspension made by a tribunal is automatically referred to the Senate Subcommittee on Discipline. Austin said that the subcommittee decided not to suspend the student now because he has a very poor academic standing. Suspension now might prove to be an unduly harsh punishment if it caused the student to flunk out of the University, he added.

Instead the subcommittee unanimously decided to place him on suspended suspension for the entire academic year — until June 1961.

In action taken Tuesday night, the Nittany Area tribunal recommended to the dean of men's office that one student be put on office probation for the balance of the semester, Austin added.

The student, a freshman in the College of Chemistry and Physics, was drinking in the residence hall. He had no previous offenses and his probation will not cause him to lose any privileges.

Banners Up? Deadline 4:45

Cut classes! Miss lunch! Do anything, but get those banners up. Today at 4:45 p.m. marks the close, the absolute end, of the Collegian Banner Contest.

As the final minutes near, the Collegian judges will begin making the rounds of dormitory units, evaluating each according to clarity and adherence to theme which is (just in case you don't know) to promote spirit for the Penn State-Maryland game tomorrow.

No application blanks are necessary and any unit is eligible. First prize, a trophy from the Association of Independent Men, will be awarded at the pep rally tonight.

Blue Band to Lead Parade Tonight In Preparation for Maryland Game

A parade led by the Blue Band will "spirit" students to the pep rally tonight in preparation for the Lions-Terrapins game tomorrow.

Students will meet in the parking lot behind Sigma Nu fraternity at 7 p.m., and march up Burrowes Rd., and down Curtin to Shortlidge Rd. The parade will then proceed down Shortlidge, left on Pollock Rd. and will stop behind Simmons.

Non-pep rally traffic on campus will be detoured around the parade route.

At Simmons, the cars will disband and participants will walk over to Old Main, where the pep rally will be held.

The Ying Yang Band, a group of men from the Nittany area interested in furthering Penn State spirit, will lead a parade
