

Delta Sigma Phi Qualifies For IM Football Playoffs

By BOB DEAN

Delta Sigma Phi stopped Sigma Chi in overtime last night to qualify for the IM football playoffs which begin Wednesday. Delta Sigma Phi and Sigma Chi were tied, 1-1, in firstdowns at the end of regulation play, but Delta Sig drove 15 yards into Sigma Chi territory for the win. Two independent league championships also were decided last night. Cedar, which hadn't given up a point in three previous games, preserved its perfect record with a 14-0 victory over Locust.

Bill Clark passed for the two Cedar touchdowns, while Tom Pugh's hard rushing resulted in a safety.

Unbeaten Poplar rounded out its league play with a 3-1 first down win over Chestnut.

Phi Sigma Delta also won on first downs, 3-1, over Alpha Tau Omega.

Birch scored a first period TD on a pass from Chuck Caffareli to Harold Stein and then held on to stop Larch 7-6.

Stein's extra point provided the winning margin after Larch scored late in the game.

Butternut broke its losing streak to beat Walnut, 7-0, and ended Walnut's chances for a league tie. Butternut's tally came on a pass play between Tom Borio and Dave Gould, with John Settle converting.

Sigma Pi held off a late rally by Phi Epsilon Pi to win 7-3. John Zerbe hit Jerry Workman for Sigma Pi's score, while Vern Zeitz kicked the field goal for Phi Ep.

Kappa Sigma ended its season with an easy 26-0 win over Sigma Alpha Mu. Dave Maize hit for three of Kappa Sigs' scores, while Harry Saxer scored on an intercepted pass.

Skip Foulk of Balsam passed for two touchdowns to lead his team to a 12-0 win over Maple. Foulk threw to teammates Bob Olson and Buz Evans for the scores.

—Although Syracuse and Army have met just 11 times on the gridiron, their rivalry is one of the nation's oldest. The first game was in 1899.

Soccermen Face Temple Tomorrow

Penn State's booters, fresh from an upset victory over Navy, will try to make it two in a row tomorrow when they face Temple at Philadelphia.

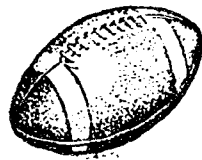

Coach Pete Leanness' Owls have lost only one game all year, bowing to undefeated West Chester, 2-1.

They have scored victories over Bucknell, 5-0; Wagner, 5-0; Hofstra, 10-2; LaSalle, 2-0, and Lafayette, 8-0.

All-Americans Bill Charlton and Jim Gallo and high scoring Len Lucenko lead the Temple attack.

—San Francisco's 49ers personnel director Pappy Waldorf calls Art Baker of Syracuse and Jim Cunningham of Pitt college football's best two fullbacks.
